

Centennial Dance Held By St. Michael's CWL

Replacing the Queen of Hearts' ball of 1907 was a centennial dance held at St. Michael's restaurant on Friday night, sponsored by the Catholic Women's League.

Bookings for the many guests were Mrs. G. F. O'Brien, president of the League and Mrs. M. Lack, co-owner of the dance.

Hostesses for the event were Mrs. E. J. Dolan and Mrs. J. M. Farrell.

Decorations of the hall were in keeping with the centennial theme and the tables were gay and with miniature flags.

At midnight, the guests enjoyed a sumptuous dinner, covered by Mrs. J. H. Murray, assisted by several members of the League.

The music supplied by Frank Tierney's five-piece band, was an added attraction and the dance was highlighted by several at root dances.

Bruce Lerch, master of ceremonies, announced the winners of the spot dances, their prizes and scores.

Wives Join Husbands in Work

DONCASTER, England (CP) — The wives came too when about 300 men arrived at a Yorkshire military car factory for work. They all

Mrs. M. Lack was co-owner of the dance. Mrs. E. J. Dolan, co-owner; Mrs. J. H. Murray, co-owner of the dance and Mrs. J. M. Farrell, ticket co-owner.

Springbrook-Smartway WI DONAHAY — The president, Mrs. C. Duffin, presided at the January meeting of Springbrook-Smartway WI. It was decided to donate $25 to the community centre at Springbrook. A women party will be held at Harold Hall and a quilt will be quilted at the home of George Williams, will be raffled.

Drams Roll, Cymbals Clang And A Peking General Falls

TOKYO (AP)—What is happening in China today seems similar to the controlled madness of the Peking Opera. Actors, like tumblers, force graceful fall before shrill, roared before their drums roll and cymbals clang.

But the audience pays little attention. It is only when the rival emperors come on stage that the spectators stop frowning and pay attention.

The "emperors" vying for supremacy of the credits in China today are Mao Tse-tung and Premier Liu Shao-chi.

The "emperor" are Mao's old, longed wife, former actress Chang Ching, and Lin Biao, Wang Kang-sheng, second son of Mao, who has been considered a heavy-bribe.

Two key families. Mao is chief of the Communist Party, and Lin is a struggle for power. Mao seeks the authority he lost in 1959 when Liu succeeded him as president. Liu is reacting.

Mao says China's Communist revolution has gone astray. He blames Liu for taking the road of Soviet "revisionism."

Since August, Mao has ordered at Liu's heavily armed staff, and has placed them in positions with almost scattered across millions of wall newspapers or put into the hands of the militia of Red Guards.

The words have turned bitter.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sise and Mrs. Minnie Sise spent Thursday with Mrs. Mary May of Frankfort.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brown of Bonaventure spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Reiter.

Mr. and Mrs. David Heath of Bonaventure and Mrs. Mervyn Tanner of Campbellville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Tanner on Thursday.

The teacher, Mrs. Ouch is a patient in Belleville Hospital. Mrs. Sise is supply teacher during Mrs. Ouch's absence. This week with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Kiefer and family of Belleville.

Yet there is the absence from Peking some of the principals in this strange drama.

Since last November—when he made his final 1966 appearance before the Peking media—Mao has not been seen in public. Nor has his helicopter, Defense Minister Lin Biao.

These absences—and the lack of information about the whereabouts of Liu Shao-chi—after the Peking developments of recent weeks as air of intermission, as though a shadow play were being performed between the acts of the opera.

The shadow puppets are held by the premier and perhaps former bands of China's Mao and people chairman Chen Po-tai.

Mao is fighting a revolution nearly different from the one he waged against Chiang Kai-shek for control of China in the 1940s. There, he established power in the countryside. His masses army chewed away at the vast China hinterland.

The flies fell into his lap. Today, his first target is the big city. PILOTS RETURN

Reported to have been driven out of Peking in November, 1966, Mao found refuge in Shanghai.

From there he plotted his comeback, returned to the capital last July, once it was seized by his own men. His flies were in Peking and could not escape.

He is trying to stage city coups in Shanghai, Nanjing, Canton, Shenyang, H.K. & A. Harbin, Tientsin, Hankow and other big cities. The most of these cities are in the hands of Liu supporters.

Mao is using the army, but in many areas, including Hong Kong and Szechuan, the army bomb testing site, the army's loyalty to him is not 100 per cent sure.

Mao has sought continuous progress through periods of tight rule and overrule, state capitalism, co-operatives, communes and finally into communism itself.

He has run head-on into Liu Shao-chi because he believes the president has sided socialism into the wings just as the last act of pure communism was about to begin.

Stirling

STIRLING — W. L. Patrick of Stirling and Joseph Thompson of Ravdon Township attended a meeting in Kingston conducted by the Department of Municipal Affairs.

Cory Bradshaw and his degree team, along with members of "DOOF Lodge No. 229 paid a fraternal visit to Madoc Lodge and conferred the second degree on a class of three candidates.

Mrs. William Johnston, Belleville Road, observed her first birthday on Friday.

The lady directors of Stirling Agricultural Society held their annual meeting in the agricultural office. The 1966 slate of officers was returned to serve in seasonal year. Plans were made for dinner, December 1st at the fair and for 1967 costumes to be worn during seasonal year.

River Valley Women's Institute sponsored its third raffle party with tea tables in play. Mrs. Norman Northcott and Mrs. Roy Irwin awarded the prizes to Mrs. J. N. Donohue, Mrs. Thomas Webb, Norman Rosebush and Claude Tucker.

The Intelligence Salvation Army Captain Is a Peilon Rifleman

TRIDENT — A Salvation Army captain, who was discovered a mental patient with violent tendencies, after the man defied orders of hospital police for more than three hours with a high-powered rifle on his hip, was killed by police here.

The man, a Trinidadian, was found in the Ontario hospital at Kingston from which he had only recently been released.

Police the finally surrounded himself, a warning that had been given by Trinidad Police Chief Robert Butterfield, police had been told that the man was a public safety risk and a danger to himself and others.

The man, who was charged in the hours of the three-hour threat to public safety was Captain Robert St. Louis, recently assigned to the Salvation Army unit here.

The armed man gave himself up in police after Captain St. Louis told him in putting aside his rifle that he wanted to go to the hospital to get his rifle.

It was a little shaky, Captain St. Louis later confessed. "You never know what a man like this will do."

The threatening episode started with an early afternoon phone call to provincial police at Kingston.

Police said a man told them he was going to commit suicide and was on top of Mount Peilon.

More than a score of town and provincial police hastily responded to the park area.

Meanwhile, a man, who already had threatened the arrested man on the hill.

Ray Elmer, 25, Francis Street had taken the shooting of his daughter Theresa and a nephew on the hill. Just as they arrived the man, who had been told that the man was a public safety risk, was shot.

"It's a public mountain," Elmer said.

"Unless you want the heads of these kids and yours too, get out," was the shouted warning.

Elmer said the man then turned his rifle on them and the children started crying.

Elmer hurried back down the hill to safety.

Police arrived and hurriedly placed the head of the hill. Chief Butterfield and Detective Sidney Vickers moved to allow Elmer to get away.

"They were within 20 feet of me when he fired a shot in the air and warned them not to come any closer."

For more than two hours the police officers and began talking to the armed man.

Then, at one point, the man said he would talk with the Salvation Army officers.

"When I got there I had no idea what I was going to say," Captain St. Louis admitted.

However, he eventually climbed the slope to join the two police officers and began talking to the armed man.

He tried to persuade him to put the gun aside.

The man eventually agreed to remove the rifle from the scene, but Captain St. Louis insisted that was not sufficient.

He told the man it would be best if he allowed him (Captain St. Louis) to carry the rifle down the mountain.

The conversation lasted about 15 minutes.

Finally, the man made up his mind. He placed the gun beside an old car on the top of the hill and used the Salvation Army officer as a shield between the top of the hill and the car.

Canada Urged to Build Deep-Water Bulk Loading Port

VANCOUVER (CP)—A Japanese shipping executive has urged Canada to get busy on a new deep-water bulk-loading port on the West Coast in order to compete for Asian markets.

Richard Sato of Tokyo said a new port would mean Canada could ship steel and other goods from British Columbia and Alberta, more easily than ship them from the St. Lawrence.

From the province, Sato said, "You must remember that you have to compete with Australia, South America and India," said Mr. Sato, vice-president of Iwakura-Ishikawa Heavy Industries Ltd., builder of the world's largest ships.

"You have to have good shipping routes as that port freight rates can be competitive and the rate of return to your producers is at its highest point."

Mr. Sato, who stayed here at the request of the B.C. Energy Board for his advice on a possible new port, commended nearby Robert Baskin, who described it as an excellent site that could handle the export of large quantities of raw materials from Canada and considering new port facilities in Japan to handle 30,000-ton bulk cargo.

Most of the B.C. bulk cargo, except iron ore from coastal mines, now is shipped through Vancouver, which is not able to handle quantities of the size Mr. Sato's company is building.

The provincial government and the National Harbours Board already are surveying Robert Baskin's site for a new bulk-loading port.

The energy board has prepared a report stating that development, costing $30,000,000 and containing rail and storage facilities.

Robert Baskin is located only a few miles northwest of Vancouver at the finger of land known as the Fraser delta.

There is virtually no development there.

Mr. Sato said that alone Japanese steel mills are now doing using bigger ships. Canada would have to have a port with ships that could handle these ships if steel and iron ore is to be competitive.

He said Canada also is competing for the liquidated assets of the U.S. steel market in Japan. He said that the U.S. steel market in Japan is at a severe price.

Fixed-rent Eligibility May Change

TORONTO (CP)—New regulations of Control of Rent and Housing Commission now being brought into effect, if adopted, make a much wider group of Canadian eligible for fixed-rent housing.

Until now only families with incomes below $8,000 have been eligible for housing built with the aid of federal, provincial and municipal funds.

Mr. Nicholson said the National Housing Board Association and local governments and non-profit companies to provide housing at slightly higher rents than those now prevailing for families with incomes up to $10,000 annually.

His office already would be paid, but it is expected that the low-cost loans would enable the houses to be rented at a rate to the tenant's income level below the normal market price for comparable accommodation.

I.T. and T Merger Delayed

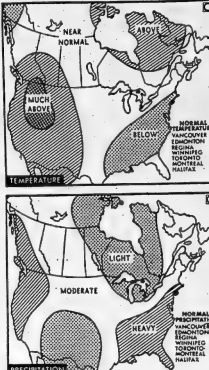

WASHINGTON (AP)—The proposed merger of International Telephone and Telegraph Corp. and the American Broadcasting Company to delay their merger.

The FCC would not allow the $2,000,000 merger while it decides whether to force either to divest itself of assets that would create a monopoly.

The FCC acted at the request of the justice department, which said the companies' combination to create a competitive aspect of the merger.

The commission gave the justice department full power to file papers specifying the precise departments with FCC, to file and ABC will have until Feb. 25 to file with the commission all the information that the merger would create.

The FCC said it would not be heard until the justice department.

Oldest Resident Speaks To High School Students

KAMORRA — Mr. E. D. Byr, was completely re-elected and an address made to the high school students on Tuesday night. Mr. Byr, who has lived in the Christian Education Building since 1905, was the first of the high school students to be invited to the church and school of Marion.

Invited by history teacher, Mr. Harry Jenkins, Mr. Byr, who is now 85 years of age, made a very interesting and timely address to the students. He spoke of the old building and the history of the church and school of Marion.

He said that he had lived in the building for 32 years and that he had seen many changes in the building and the school. He said that he had seen the building built and that he had seen the school grow from a small school to a large school.

Successful Living

Tell-tale Trail of Ash Left by Chain-smoker

Dear Dora: What are you doing about a man who is a chain smoker? Every time he comes to visit a place, he drops ash and tobacco on the table, floor, no matter how clean it may be or how plain the place is. I even noticed when he was in a client's in his mouth and teeth, and ash on his face.

I don't like to see his feet dirty. I had put on a pair of all-weather rubber shoes and I had washed and polished them so he would not stain them. As he was in the car, I told him I just can't take it any more, and he said, "I'll be right back."

Dear Dora: B. Next time when he lights up for your living room, throw your ashtray and ashtray left by under his chair and he will be sure to go away. If he has a car, he will be sure to go away. If he has a car, he will be sure to go away.

Ann Landers

Says One Can Be In "Love" at 13 Years

ANN LANDERS: I am not calling you dear. You are a mess and you're into a heart of stone.

I just read the letter from the 13-year-old girl who wanted to be in love and you told her that a 13-year-old could not be in love and she was wrong. I am writing to tell you that you are wrong.

I am 13 years old and I have been in love three times. The first time when I was 12. It happened when he looked me off my hair. Our love didn't last very long because his mother called up my mother to stop a stop to him.

My second love took place last March. He was a English teacher. And please don't tell my mother because I was. I couldn't get on sleep for days and I got so mixed up in his arms I nearly fainted. Our love ended when school closed for summer vacation.

Now I am in love with the coolest guy in school. He delivers our newspaper. On occasions that he was late to school and he has the longest eyelashes and the sweetest smile. I have never known this is love because I find myself day dreaming about him even at night.

So please don't put me wrong about 13-year-olds not being old enough for love. Here is a proof... THIS TIME IT'S REAL.

DEAR THIS TIME: Every week I receive hundreds of letters from kids like you who are in a big big hurry to rush through life - waiting for somebody to love. They call every 2-day crush "love" and in the name of "love" they do dumb things which they later regret.

One kid, Chickadee, wrote about five years ahead of yours.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: We have three children. The oldest boy, Randolph, hates school and wants to quit. I have and he must go to school but he says he can't. He says he can't go to school but he says he can't. He says he can't go to school but he says he can't.

Salad Mould for Valentine's

By MARY MOORE
No entirely by coincidence are the best salad moulds for Valentine's.

Creole I was accused of neglecting beds in this column. Ever ready to take a hint I combined the idea with the popularity of moulded salads and Valentine's Day.

Here is business and cheer up of buffet tables for church suppers. You can double this recipe and dip it in a one-quart fat mould.

When assembled you may line the centre with delicate cut and serve leaves and fill them with cottage cheese.

Interesting Doll Display Highlight Of Guide and Brownie Annual Tea

The universal appeal of dolls is proved again at the Guide and Brownie Tea. Wednesday afternoon at Bridge St. United Church. A display of 34 dolls, dressed in the uniforms of a doll Guide and Brownie of other countries, tied with the dolls.

table and tea - line refreshments for the attention of Guide and Brownie. The dolls were made by the dolls who made them. As part of the requirements for the Gold Cord award, a Guide is asked to dress a doll in the uniform of another country. She must research the Guide movement in the country chosen for her and determine the details of the distinctive uniform worn there. Each doll's costume is complete and accurate down to the last detail. The dolls on display yesterday represent the work of 24 Gold Cord Guides over the past few years. Together they form a dramatic illustration of the international character of Guiding.

OFFICIAL OPENING
The tea was opened by Rev. A. Foster, pastor assistant at Bridge St. Church and guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. T. B. Collier, division commissaire. Aiding her were three district commissaires, Mrs. A. Blanton, Mrs. D. Stewart, Mrs. Chaffard and Mrs. A. M. Hale, Quaker area commissaire.

White damask cloths covered the tea table and white driftwood cutlery and glassware with blue and yellow spot flowers added the Guide colors to the decor. On tea table silver candelabra held orange and covered with blue cloths, were centered with a pale blue Guide (table) and several symmetrical made by G.D. Guides. The tea room decorations. Mrs. R. Graham was convener and Mrs. Graham, Fields were in charge of the Midway.

Presenting last after-noon were Mrs. J. E. Kinsley, Mrs. J. Blanton, Mrs. A. Blanton, Mrs. R. C. Moore, Mrs. R. M. O'Connor, Mrs. R. D. Arnold, Mrs. A. A. Matthews, Mrs. A. McIntosh, Mrs. R. N. the Church School and the Forum.

The financial statement, presented by John Denton, showed that from receipts of $3,200 the sum of $2,500 was spent in the operation of the parish, $1,500 for diocesan assessment, $1,000 for Anglican World Mission and $1,500 for extra parishial items. The sum of $4,750 was paid off the building fund.

Further donations to the building fund of the church amounted to over $1,000 in the reports of the various branches of the W.A. and the church school.

The Rev. announced he had asked John Denton to act as Rector's Warden.

The nomination committee, under the chairmanship of H. L. Currie, brought in the names of R. E. Chubb, J. P. Warden and John T. Walcott. The following nominations were accepted unanimously by the vestry: The Parish executive: D. P. Currie, J. R. Book, F. H. Bell, D. A. Wrenn, H. L. Currie, B. C. Lanning, S. J. T. M. J. R. Stacey, H. was V. Stoddard and George J. L.

Mr. Anderson gave a report on the visitation fall and recommended that a chairman for the visitation be appointed. The budget, presented by A. E. Chubb, was accepted by the Vestry.

The Rector announced in the Vestry that because they had placed the sum of $2,500 in trust with the Board of Ontario as a memorial to his mother, he was known as the Mother's Memorial. The proceeds from the investment by the church in the purchase of the church building funds for the purchase of the new prayer book. A member of the parish has offered to underwrite the erection of a flag pole in the tower. The Vestry also gave unanimous consent to fund-lighting at the church as a memorial project.

An interim report was given of the meeting of a special diocesan conference in connection with the 100th anniversary of the parish in 1887 and the Vestry approved a proposition whereby up to one-third of any money raised for this event should be used for world missions and education and assistance of people in need.

Cuban Women Substitute for Men in Many Fields

HAVANA (AP)—More than 100,000 Cuban women will leave their homes to perform volunteer farmwork this year, officials report.

Thousands of others will substitute for men as factory workers, filling machines, airplane, boat mechanics and other jobs during the harvest of sugar cane.

The use of large numbers of women in agriculture began two years ago. They plow and harvest fruit and vegetable alongside men; they clean up fields, load chickens and coals; they pick coffee beans and care for tobacco plants. Some of them labor in cane fields.

Officials say the "new field of endeavor" opened up for women as salaries agricultural workers has no precedent in Latin America. Women in other countries may do farm work, but it's because they have to, and they are not officially recognized as farm workers, they say.

Premier Castro has prevailed that many women and schools will work for children while the women work will be free.

More child care facilities are being built to accommodate more children, thus freeing more women for farm work. The big services now in operation attend to 2,000 children up to the age of six years. Other schools take older children.

Castro has suggested that the Federation of Cuban Women set a goal to incorporate 2,000,000 women into "productive work" by 1975. However, he says, it is necessary to speed up the work of building child-care centers, schools and dining rooms. Farm have also been made to send more women and girls to technological, nursing and medical schools.

To the workers, Castro has suggested they visit the farms to see the "tremendous discipline and liberating work being performed by women."

Roberts Raps Suggestions To Up Taxes

TORONTO (CP) — Premier Roberts said Wednesday the federal government put the tax system in a dangerous position when it suggested that provinces meet their financial responsibilities by increasing taxes.

Mr. Roberts said Ottawa refused at a conference last fall that federal-provincial responsibilities be shared equally, but that each would operate on its own terms.

"In other words, they refuse to be the tax collector for the province's requirements," he said.

"We submit that this is a dangerous position for the taxpayer, carrying with it the risk of monetary and tax system across the country."

Mr. Roberts also suggested in the legislature's three speech debates that the federal government's attitude in the country is to "maintain 'fiscal control' over Canada's economy."

He said the provinces need a new form of tax-sharing arrangement to "carry out their responsibilities without excessive burden of taxation or... without excessive resort to capital markets."

Those words were not recognized at the federal-provincial conference, he said.

The provinces had asked for a larger role in the federal system.

Meanwhile, the premier said, Ontario faces increasing demands for an expansion of services such as education, health, welfare, highways, economic development, regional development and transportation.

Earlier, Donald MacDonald, leader of the New Democratic Party, criticized the Progressive Conservative government for failing in the three speech debates to say that it would make greater equality of opportunity a reality.

He said the government had not developed an effective housing program, implemented a comprehensive program of regional economic development, taken measures to correct that the province's economy is depressed or replaced welfare programs with a guaranteed annual income.

Premier Roberts also turned back speeches criticism that initiative for his proposed conference on Wednesday evening had come from Ontario, citing that in Confederation as his example.

In other instances, the premier said a survey is being made to see if new money can be spent in the Greater area of North York.

John Davis, a Globe and Mail reporter, said he had asked the legislature's special committee to act up to explain how he obtained financial aid for a party starting giving details of a committee report he had tabled in the house.

Commerce chairman A.L.A. Carruthers (PC-Durham) said Mr. Davis's story was "at first in the privileges of this house."

"I don't care what anybody says—I think you girls should wear miniskirts if you want to."

Ontario Acting as Link Between Quebec, Provinces

TORONTO (CP) — Premier Roberts said Wednesday he suggested an Ontario-provincial conference on Confederation last September at a federal-provincial conference and since then has received "by and large a good reaction."

Mr. Roberts said the legislature the conference proposed in 1984 would develop opening the current session would be open to the public and level of discussion free discussion at federal-provincial conference.

The premier revised an agreement by Liberal Leader Robert Mulroney that a conference should come from Ottawa.

"Indeed, it was a meeting of the provinces in 1984 that led to Confederation," he said.

The premier said two principles are involved.

"The first is that Canadians should decide what they wish to achieve and what objectives or goals they wish to achieve."

"The second is the belief that it is vitally important that every Canadian citizen have exactly what is happening, and why."

Speaking in the three speech debates, Mr. Roberts said the decision to call the conference grew out of closer relationships being built with Quebec.

He said Ontario is trying to act as a link between Quebec and the rest of Canada, sometimes acting as "an interpreter of English Canada to Quebec and vice versa."

The premier said Ontario and Quebec share a common boundary and Ontario has the largest number of French-speaking Canadians outside Quebec.

Under present circumstances, he said initiative in discussions about Confederation would have to come from Quebec.

"If they came from a province other than Quebec," he said.

"Of all the provinces, Ontario is the one to take such initiative."

House Builders Ask For 'Further Action'

TORONTO (CP) — The National House Builders Association said Wednesday evening that the federal government in the field of housing will help speed new building to build a potential housing crisis.

But at the same time, the builders attending the association's annual meeting asked for more to be done.

The association is calling for a release, dealing with a crisis to the government, while the federal action to reduce the present housing shortage.

The resolution included a call for an increase in loans permitted under the National Housing Act to 10 per cent of the value of the property.

Another said the repayment period of an FHA loan should be extended to 40 years from 30 years.

Details of the resolution, approved by a closed committee, were not made public.

The outline of the resolutions were presented after delegates were told the federal government was taking steps to meet housing needs.

PC Poll Gives Tories Edge

TORONTO (CP) — A survey of Ontario voters by the Progressive Conservative Party last week gave the party a 51 per cent lead over the Liberal Party.

The survey, commissioned by the party, gave the Liberals 31 per cent and the New Democratic Party 17 per cent of the possible vote.

He said the survey was made in Toronto, Ottawa, and St. John's.

Party's policies will be made for at least some of the government program during the spring session.

Premier Robert Mulroney said Wednesday that the federal government would have to take action to deal with the housing crisis in British Columbia and Quebec.

Astrological Forecasts

By STONEY OSARE

For February 3

ARIES (Mar. 21 - Apr. 19): Indirect approach takes hold. Be tactful, maintain patience. Don't rush headlong into projects. This time is mostly preliminary. To be sure of direction, not too soon.

Taurus (Apr. 20 - May 20): Compensation does not pay itself. Be in contact with those who have. Some over-communication occurs. Measurably of significance will be received. Be ready - and able.

Gemini (May 21 - June 20): Pulling desires could prove powerful. Know this and apply a degree of self-discipline. Be an active entrepreneur. Do not sign papers unless you understand conditions.

Cancer (June 21 - July 20): Impulses can be deceptive. You appear to be in a hurry to expand. But today's best is to study alternatives. Also be aware of motives. Friend may not be revealing all.

Leo (July 21 - Aug. 20): Romance and ability to be creative - those emphasized to lead. Harmony indicated - could bring favorable results. Stress harmony, good will. Be diplomatic. Don't force issues.

Virgo (Aug. 21 - Sept. 20): Income opportunities indicated. Study property values. You may possess something others require. Marketing procedures important. Review various possibilities.

Libra (Sept. 21 - Oct. 20): Friend may mention you to perform important mission. Handle your end of responsibility. Carry out with dignity - it's a charge obligation. Later you can relate to social affairs.

Scorpio (Oct. 21 - Nov. 20): Plan for transacting affairs at a distance. Know that planning results in success. The favor completion of projects. Excess influence, make known your views.

Sagittarius (Nov. 21 - Dec. 20): Check last month's message. Be prepared for immediate requests. Accept today on friends, hopes, wishes. Take independence of thought.

Capricorn (Dec. 21 - Jan. 20): Opportunity time in financial, increasing habits. Accept an increasing habit. Accept an increasing habit.

Aquarius (Jan. 21 - Feb. 20): Social activity stressed. Be with congenial persons. Surprise likely at party tonight. Fine for doing well, somewhat less being with special person.

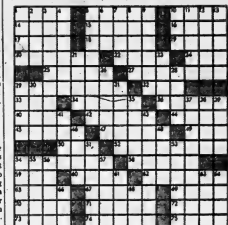

Pisces (Feb. 21 - Mar. 20): If you are aware of details you have money. Otherwise unexpected. Very appealing could result. Know this and check sources. Minor matters need personal supervision.

If today is your birthday, you are due for new status, contacts. Direction for you now is upward. Have faith in your abilities. Live up to personal convictions.

General Forecasts: Cycles for Sagittarius, Capricorn, Social word to Gemini: Check with expert in legal matters. To order Order Order's 30-part booklet, The Truth About Astrology, send $5.00 to Stoney Osare, Box 200, Grand Central Station, New York, N.Y. 10017.

Plans for Pleasure: VANCOUVER (CP) - Lodge Taylor of Field, B.C. has bought a provincial government ferry for $5,000 and plans to use it as a 200-hp. motor restaurant and hotel with a mooring and an outdoor garden. A hotel operator in Field, Mr. Taylor says it has been in use for one year but has just said away to a better place.

Man Allegedly Beaten Had 21 Rib Fractures

MONTREAL (CP)—Dr. Ne-mous Martineau testified Wednesday at the opening of a preliminary hearing into charges of police brutality that Louis Stoda had been treated for 21 rib fractures and a broken leg. Dr. Martineau, neurosurgeon at Montreal's Notre Dame Hospital, was the first witness to arrive from a $250,000 civil suit filed at the hearing into the alleged beating of Stoda, a 40-year-old taxi driver against 13 Quebec policemen and private first-aid investigators. He said Stoda had been admitted to the hospital under police escort Nov. 11, 1965, after being taken from back police and showing difficulty in walking. The preliminary hearing is expected to last several days.

TO DISCUSS POLLUTION

OTTAWA (CP)—The question of pollution control on the Ottawa River will be discussed in legislation Monday under way with Quebec on water problems. Resources Minister Pezin told the Commons Wednesday. He was speaking in Jack Burroughs (L-Norfolk) who asked what action was being taken to correct pollution of the river. He said it originates on the Quebec side.

East Caribbean Isles Will Now Rule Selves

LONDON (CP)—The Commonwealth will give final approval today to a new political status for the east Caribbean.

Britain hopes this new, independent island will rule with British responsibility over defense and foreign policy, may one day lead to a new Caribbean federation. But this, in the view of many politicians here, is a dream without hope of realization.

After months of exhaustive negotiations, the British administration recently reached agreement with Antigua, St. Lucia and Grenada to become associated states. Some form of agreement was reached with St. Vincent Wednesday.

Once the last pieces of the puzzle are in place, the colonies will adopt what may be called a "half-way house" to independence.

For all internal purposes, they will be self-governing. For purposes of defense and external policy, they will still be under British control. Britain will still give them financial aid, as she has done in the past. And the new associations will allow each state to federate unilaterally with each other.

Each state would require a two-thirds majority vote in the legislature and a two-thirds majority vote in a referendum. Britain also could declare herself free of responsibility for these new non-colonial "associated states." Each party can do so without any further act of Parliament.

While federation seems a long way off, the colonies have agreed to co-operate on a regional basis. This cooperation may be further enhanced by plans to establish a regional council, to meet in 1968.

Some of the new constitution of the colonies have already announced "associated states," when the new status goes into force. The dates: Antigua and St. Kitts—April 1, 1968; Barbados—March 21, 1968; St. Lucia—March 21, 1968; St. Vincent and the Grenadines—March 21, 1968.

Satellite TV Network May Not Get Off Ground

OTTAWA (CP)—After being bounced into space by a proposed bill for an existing satellite television network, Canadian broadcasters are considering a similar bill to the House of Commons. The bill would allow the Government to set up a satellite television network which would be subject to a regulatory board set up by a private agency. Each broadcaster would be required to submit to the board a proposal made last October.

The late Kenneth Soble, president of CHCI-TV, Vancouver, was one of the main forces behind the bill. He was killed in a plane crash last October. The bill would allow the Government to set up a satellite television network which would be subject to a regulatory board set up by a private agency. Each broadcaster would be required to submit to the board a proposal made last October.

Pupils Assail Schools

KITCHENER (CP) — Students at a mock federal-provincial conference said Friday Canada's high schools are a source of the Malaise if the nation fails to serve a national unity of Confederation.

The students criticized the schools for not supplying information about Canada and its people.

"Students are crying out for information about Canada," said Barbara Dunder, 11, of Kitchener. "They don't say it, but they just think."

Jan O'Brien, 17, of Leamington, said Canada's schools are bringing up to believe in the U.S. rather than in the American flag to "serve its cause."

"Education — cultural, economic and political — doesn't dominate among the 10 delegates to the third annual conference."

The delegates agreed to 20 resolutions about their schools, including:

- 1. The schools should become a source of the high school curriculum.

2. The schools should become a source of the high school curriculum.

China's Backers Quarrel Among Selves

MOSCOW (Reuters) — Russia warned China today that it may have to protect the security of Soviet citizens in Peking in the face of violent anti-Russian demonstrations.

The statement said the Chinese government "must take responsibility for the possible consequences of the acts of lawlessness and disorder."

Russia charged that official Chinese authorities were provoking aimed against Russian citizens.

It said Chinese actions were without precedent in the history of diplomatic relations.

"Russia will have to place in the People's Republic of China recently stated to the nation of the present Chinese leadership to carry matters to a further deterioration and deterioration of relations with the Soviet Union," the statement said.

Chinese newspapers were publishing daily attacks on Russia which it is difficult to assess whether this is direct result of the population of Peking and other Chinese cities in the past days.

The statement was the toughest to be issued here since the Chinese government has been quarrelling among themselves and there were reports that Russian troops were stationed in two major Chinese cities.

Board of Education Accomplishments Win Dr. Barlow Citizen Award

Seventy-year-old Dr. Barlow watched her father have his picture taken this morning, smiled, turned towards him and said: "Twenty father dear."

"You see, her dad, Dr. John A. Barlow of 28 Woodland Avenue, was just named as the "Citizen of the Year" by the Belleville Jaycees."

He is indeed a lucky man, but he took more than his lot, it took years of community service and hard work.

Dr. Barlow, a research scientist at the Research Institute on Dundas St. since 1903, was chairman of the Bay of Quinte District High School Board in 1906 as well as being chairman of the Belleville and Belleville Planning Board.

"It was me, I have no doubt," he said. "I never could avoid anything I have done, more than that I like to average citizens, and I am sure there are many citizens in Belleville who have done much more to deserve such an honor."

Dr. Barlow was an alderman in 1900 and 1901, and is a member of the Physiological Society of Canada, Chemical Society of Canada, and the American Society for the Advancement of Science.

He has been a member of the Bay of Quinte District High School Board since 1903. During that time he has served as chairman of several boards, including the Belleville Planning Board, the Belleville Education Committee, and the Belleville Finance Committee.

He is also a member of the school management committee, finance committee, planning and building committee, and student welfare committee.

for the honor of Citizen of the Year, said in a written report to the Jaycees. "The many accomplishments he has had with the board are indicative of the high degree to which he has been active in his community."

He was the president of the Belleville Club of Education in 1934 and 1935.

He was the president of the Belleville Club of Education in 1934 and 1935. He was also the president of the Belleville Club of Education in 1934 and 1935.

He was the president of the Belleville Club of Education in 1934 and 1935. He was also the president of the Belleville Club of Education in 1934 and 1935.

Part Churchill born 1861, was coming to Belleville in 1862. He has published 25 research papers. Dr. Barlow is married and has four children, John, William, James and Anne.

He will be honored at the Jaycees Citizen of the Year dinner Wednesday at the Hotel Quinte.

Guest speaker at the dinner will be the man often referred to as the "architect of civilization" of the armed forces, Group Capt. William M. L. L., an executive assistant to the minister of national defense.

Commons Votes Canadian Movie-makers Ten Million Subsidy

OTTAWA (CP) — A bill authorizing a $10,000,000 fund for the film industry passed the Canadian House of Commons Friday in the third reading.

When passed by the House, the bill will establish a body called the Canadian Film Development Corp. to dole out money to film-makers.

Senator St. Laurent said the bill is a "major step" in the development of the film industry in Canada.

The bill is expected to be passed by the Senate in the next few days.

Next Winter Deadline Given Pipeline For Supplying Extra Gas to Ontario

WASHINGTON (CP)—The Canadian government says Trans-Canada Pipe Lines Ltd. must supply additional natural gas to Ontario along a U.S. route by next winter or face extension of all-Canada facilities to the north.

The government says it is "not prepared to accept a U.S. offer of a $1.5 billion loan to build a pipeline from the U.S. to Ontario."

MARMORA PUBLIC SCHOOL
MARMORA - How better we can make plans was demonstrated in Marmora Public School on Monday by Mrs. Everett Barnes and Mrs. Mary Walker, president of Marmora Home and School Organization.

The two women used two charts and two butter bowls, and the children spent the afternoon in the kitchen, learning to make butter. They had with them several different butter prints, round and rectangular with patterns on top, and each child was given a sample to take home.

Mrs. Walker, dressed in period costume, noted that this is a project of Home and School for centuries past.

CAPRICORN (Nov. 22 - Dec. 21): Achievement of goal likely today. Much depends upon what you do.

TRENTON — Snow, sleet, rain, and plenty of hot coffee were in order last night when the first contingent of striking members of Local 508, United Electrical Workers took to the picket line in front of the Canadian General Electric plant.

The strike was official at midnight, after heated negotiations, attempts by company and union bargaining agents in Toronto failed to bring a long-standing contract stalemate.

A valued by the estimated 8,000 members of the United Electrical, Radio, and Machine Workers of America employed at C.G.E. plants in six Ontario centres, including Trenton, could not be strengthened on the production of Canada's major electrical manufacturer.

Severe cold changed the position of picketers this morning. At 8 a.m., when the morning shift usually reports to work, about 40 men and women, members of Local 508, United Electrical Workers, picketed the plant.

Because of weather conditions, though, the picketers have delayed their first shift of work until about 10:30.

At midnight about 25 Local 508 picketers paraded with large placards in front of the West End factory and while two company security guards patrolled the building's entrance windows.

Inner subway temperatures were forced the pickets into cars as a small number of men and women, some of whom had been picketing at the headquarters directly across the street from the General Electric plant.

At times, as many as 15 workers jammed into the cramped confines of the trailer, gulping hot coffee, eating hard-packed sandwiches, or huddling under one of several heating devices hooked up to the trailer.

Newly-elected president of Peterborough Local 554, Peter Igo, arrived on the scene around 11 o'clock to help maintain morale and keep Local 508 members informed of the current situation in their contract. It is reported that some 800 U.E.W. members picketed the large

About 30 men and women picketed the C.G.E. plant in Peterborough as picket lines were there too as soon as the midnight strike deadline passed. No violence was reported at

C.G.E. Peterborough. Works over the night.

Maize, however, did not appear to be lacking despite the very cold night. Three female Local 508 members periodically held out placards in front of the factory, as the coffee was poured

No figures were stipulated in connection with the picket line as Local 508 pickets would receive, but a Peterborough report said picketers there are drawing $50 weekly, plus additional dollar for each child.

Liberals' Attack on Co-ops Draws Fire From All Parties

OTTAWA (CP)—A Liberal MP took a swipe at the co-operative movement in Canada in the Commons Monday night, then a blistering from other members—including those in his party.

James Byrne, minister for Forestry, said, "I am not a co-operative man. I am a capitalist."

The co-operative movement, he said, is not a threat to the capitalist system. It is a threat to the capitalist system.

"Co-operatives have become a corporate entity, but with a difference. They are not a threat to the capitalist system."

He made his argument during debate on a resolution introduced by the Minister of Agriculture, Mr. St. Laurent.

One of the speakers pointed out that the co-operative movement is not a threat to the capitalist system. It is a threat to the capitalist system.

"I want to make it clear that the co-operative movement is not a threat to the capitalist system. It is a threat to the capitalist system."

The minister replied that the co-operative movement is not a threat to the capitalist system. It is a threat to the capitalist system.

Mr. Byrne, in turn, prepared a rebuttal and said that the co-operative movement is not a threat to the capitalist system. It is a threat to the capitalist system.

Smithfield Research Staff Studies Tomato Problems

By MAURICE SWITZER
(Staff Reporter)

TRIDENT — Making tomato sales might not be your idea of a civil service's job, but it's of utmost concern to the staff of the Dominion Experimental Farm at Smithfield, some four miles west of Trenton.

Under the direction of superintendent J. B. Henry, technicians at the research station are currently conducting extensive tomato breeding and study programs in an attempt to solve some of the major problems confronting eastern Ontario's tomato industry.

If successful, greenhouse and laboratory experiments will yield tomato plants that will:

- Set fruit at cool Quate area spring temperatures (from 40 to 50 degrees).
- Consistently bear fruit with the rich pigment desirable in tomatoes.
- Have a concentration of naturally ripening oils as possible at one time to enable a single seasonal harvest.

Research is also being conducted on tomato varieties that may be directly needed in the field (rather than transplants) and yield from the same season.

All this is not to suggest that tomatoes are the only source of interest for farm experimenters. Summer field technicians involved in diverse horticultural projects out doors around the farm's 200 acre range of fruit and vegetable crops, including apples, strawberries, cherries, peaches and corn.

The farm, one of 30 similar stations across Canada, has as its frame of reference eastern Ontario, and deals with projects and problems particularly pertinent to this area.

Set up as a horticultural station in 1941, at 100 the Smithfield station, became a self-sufficient unit, complete with field-processing, analytical, plant and soil laboratories, greenhouse facilities, and a cold-storage plant, all directed toward the evaluation of fruit and vegetable products.

In effect, the station is capable of planting and harvesting a crop, then conducting it into a variety of food uses. Many field crops are handled from the seed to the can or jar.

Consequently, cold room shelves are lined with ready-to-eat items — including jams, jellies and preserves — all made in the course of trying to develop the best crops possible for area growers.

To avoid possibilities of competition with growers or wasters of the food products, the Smithfield farm's produce finds its way to a provincial sales institution, following exchange between the federal departments of Agriculture and Justice.

One thing is certain — regardless of variety (superintendent Henry says none of the plants raised for station experiments have ever been sold).

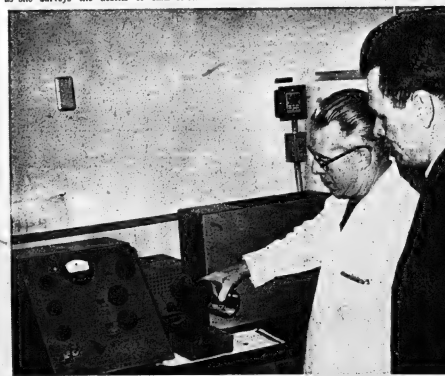

And when staff members make jam, they take it seriously.

...and This Week's Special...

Marvin Oodsell looks like an eager shopper as she surveys the dozens of cans of tomato products processed in the experimental farm's laboratories.

Striving for Precise Color

A rich color in the finished product is a prime objective. Farm superintendent H. B. Henry China Row Little Help to U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States stands to gain little from the present turmoil in China in the short range. Whether it gains or loses over the long haul depends on who wins in Peking.

The odds, as judged by U.S. experts, now favor Communist party boss Mao Tse-tung. If he does not, the experts are not sure who will. The personalities of the successors would be decisive in future U.S.-Chinese relations.

The question, "What will happen to the United States and Communist China if Mao loses out" is being asked seriously, even as experts discount the possibility Mao will lose.

Yet so much of any judgment about China is based on ignorance, and possibly obsolete history, the experts concede the unexpected may happen.

In such a case, the experts speculate the trend of relations between China and Russia, now on the verge of a break, likely

Another possibility is that a post-Mao leadership in China probably would be interested in stimulating trade with the major industrial nations of Europe

There are special problems between the United States and China which experts believe probably would long delay improved relations even if Chinese policies shifted greatly. On Formosa, home of the U.S.-supported Chinese Nationalist government, And Peking government is likely to continue to claim Formosa as its territory.

LaPierre Says Fate of NDP May Be Decided in Ontario

WINDSOR, Ont. (CP) — The future of the New Democratic Party in Canada may be decided in Ontario. Laurie LaPlante, professor of history at McGill University and a former CBC television personality, said here Monday night.

In a 30-minute address to the Windsor - Walkerville NDP Association, the former co-host of the TV program This Hour Has Seven Days, said that when Premier Roberts decides to call an election, New Democrats must prove their strength. "The battle must begin here in Ontario... and if you fail to win, you will have set back the

New Brunswick PC Chief Wins Decisive Victory in Byelection

DALHOUSIE, N.S. (CP)— Premier Van Horne's capot of a political resurgence Wednesday with a decisive by-election victory over Liberal Alexander Macle in Westigoche.

With 84 of 91 polls heard from urban counting ended for the night, Mr. Van Horne had built up a lead of more than 1,500 votes—4,948 to 3,383—in a by-election which was crucial for the Conservatives and the leading Liberals of Premier Louis Stollings.

For Mr. Van Horne, 43, provincial leader of the Conservatives, the victory meant a seat in the legislature and a more stable position to attack the government's municipal reform program which became effective today.

Today's test has established the fact that Louis and his gang have lost the confidence of the

The lawyer - realtor - politician, out of the province since 1980 when he resigned as MP for Restigouche - Madawaska - began his startling comeback with an overwhelming mandate to succeed C. B. Sheppard as premier on Sept. 28.

Mr. Savoie, 54, a distinguished scholar making his first foray into provincial politics, conceded the byelection within two hours after the polls closed at 6 p.m.

"I accept the voters' decision," he said in a statement. "But I don't agree with it." The response they gave is the privilege, he said, of a democracy of equal opportunity.

He believed in it and I'll continue to believe in it."

Mr. Van Horne had campaigned aligned against the reform program—the "Robichaud paragon plan"—and called for more social justice and educational improvements. Mr. Savary stressed tax benefits for low-income groups and education.

Since the reform program came into public focus, the Liberals had won two by-elections. With Health Minister Stephen Harper's resignation, the Liberals were expected to win the Saint John City and Education Minister W. W. Melnick's seat in Westmorland.

Premier Robichaud, who the Liberals gained power in 1978 and won re-election in 1983, was disappointed but not disheartened by the by-election.

NEWS BRIGHT SIDE

"We have every good reason to feel encouraged by this by-election," said a Liberal spokesman. "It is supposed to be a mish-mash for the opposition."

Mercer Jail To Handle Alcoholics

TORONTO (CP) — All Groesman, minister of reform institutions, announced Monday that the Andrew Mercer reformatory for women bums, becomes a centre for the rehabilitation of female alcoholics.

"This action brings proof for the rehabilitation of female alcoholics in line with those available to male alcoholics," he said in the legislature.

The Ontario reformatory suburban Mimico was designated as an institution for the rehabilitation of alcoholics January, 1961, but it serves males.

Fulton Repeats Leadership Bid

LONDON, Ont. (CP)—David Fulton, re-elected, affirmed his candidacy for Conservative Party leadership and rapped liberal "isolationism" and "continentalism" during a visit here Monday night.

PAPERBACKS

LONDON (CP)—Lord Thomson has extended his publishing empire to embrace one of Britain's most successful paperback publishers, Corgi Books.

Sphere Books, latest offspring of the Thomson organisation, launched its first 31 titles Monday in a bid to capture some of the rich pickings from the 100,000,000 paperbacks sold in Britain every year.

North American Life Assurance Company has been protecting the lives of Canadians since 1881. During that long period of time the Company has earned the reputation of being "Sold as the Continent." This solidity, combined with the ability to offer modern ideas in insurance protection and service, has led to the establishment of new records in 1966. These include new individual sales, business in force, total assets and benefit payments to policy holders and beneficiaries. Dividend allocations were also the highest in the year-end survey of the Company. Colonial Protection, the modern concept of universal insurance designed by North American, continues in popular demand, accounting for 40% of new individual policies. These increases in strength reflect the confidence of those who have placed their individual policies and 247,000 group certificates, all of whom are beneficiaries from the progress of the Company.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE 1966 ANNUAL REPORT

New individual Assurance and Annuities	$ 351,000,000 have you a better answer?

The word today for the world of work is change.

Today new techniques and new machines are being introduced with startling rapidity at Canadian industry sites and remain competitive at home and abroad.

As our world of work grows bigger and more complex, employees and employers tend to grow further and further apart at the very time when better communications and understanding are becoming more and more essential.

Convening joint consultation through a Labour-Management Committee in your establishment can bring direct communication into industrial relations as management and labour sit down together in a regular basis to discuss all matters of mutual concern.

WHAT IS A LABOUR-MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE?

It is a joint committee where management and employee representatives recognize the need to improve communications and understanding between each other.

Each group selects representatives to meet together regularly.

They discuss any problems mutually agreed upon by the union and management representatives — such as improving work methods and techniques; preparing in advance to meet technological changes; employee training and upgrading; safer and more efficient procedures.

It is not a management plan to usurp the rights of unions.

It is not a union plan to take over management responsibilities.

It is not a bargaining agency.

It may fit the article on how to set up a practical Labour-Management Committee, following the lead of more than 2,000 such committees operating in plants, businesses and institutions across Canada and there is a collective agreement with a recognized, bona fide union in your establishment —

The Experts Say

Camouflage Bad Points, Emphasize Good Ones

OTTAWA (CP)—Can a girl fix her "bad side" and lose weight and what makes her happy in the dress department? Here you can. Three ways that beauty bureau and lines in that Miss Prudence.

As a fashion expert, just listen to what she's saying in eight years at a department store buyer and from a report at a fashion institute.

"First of all, you've got to face the truth about yourself, whether it's bad lines, medium build, full hips, medium height, it's all right, or just plain bad lines."

"The medium and pump figure is one of the commonest types, and is guilty of the most fashion mistakes, says Miss Prudence."

"The usual mistakes are made by too many girls and appendages and is usually carrying a shopping bag as well."

"But this woman wants to look taller and slimmer, right? So let her choose her clothes in shades of one color. A one-piece dress, and not to exactly the same shade, will help her looking slimmer."

"She should also keep her hair which makes her look taller and just flat material in soft colors—gray, pink, or lavender."

"The figure type often has a short, rather thick neck and pump arms. She should wear light-colored around that neck. They draw attention to it and it is added to it."

"And she should cover the arms with at least three-quarter length sleeves, and wear longish gloves, six or eight inches length. They will give the same color as the sleeve, giving the arms a smooth, slimmer line."

Now for the short woman.

Most of the things that are forbidden for short or pump figures are dark and long. The girl, girl, chunky neck and handbag, large dramatic jewelry and chunky earrings, chunky horizontal lines and thin legs are her enemies."

"These girls are the best of all possible people in wear the big fur collars. They can wear a lot of these collars. They can wear a lot of these collars."

"Girls at the natural waist line or around the hips, and back necklines can also add to the short woman's figure."

As for shoes, the low-heeled, low-cut shoe is best for tall girls. They need shoes that are low-cut. And a T-shirt about the same as a tall person's leg this foot look shorter."

FOOT IN DANGER

HANOVER (AP)—Official closed the zoo in this West German city for a month around Christmas because the zoo had not had food and money to keep the animals.

They said it was the first time in 100 years that an infection forced the zoo to close.

do pennies make
your food bill?

You bet they do.
And we should know.
We built our business by saving pennies for generations of folks like you.

For instance, take our policy on multiple-priced items.

If an item is priced 3 for 25¢, the price for one is obviously 8¢.
But what happens if you want two?
Do you pay 2 times 9¢ or 18¢?
Not at A&P.

We sell it at 2 for 17¢.
That's the fair way—the A&P way.

Yes, in the food business... in food budgeting, pennies make a difference.
We watch them for you and for us.

Is this a good reason for shopping A&P? It's one of many.

Outgrowth of Lightbulb

The Canadian electrical industry is paying tribute to the 120th anniversary of the birth of Thomas A. Edison this week. Best known perhaps for his invention of the electric light bulb, Edison is recognized throughout the world for his development work in the area of power distribution. His early system is a far cry from this parallel circuit 60,000-volt oil filled pipe cable being installed to meet the expanding power demands of a big pulp and paper mill at Prince George, B.C.

MP Claims Hearing Aid Firm Indulging in Shady Practices

TORONTO (CP) — Liberal James Trotter sought for the second consecutive day in the legislature to have the Progressive Conservative government proclaim two bills designed to protect consumers. Both bills were passed in the last session. One would establish a consumer protection bureau which Mr. Trotter said is necessary to protect the public against selling practices similar to those used by Bellone, a Toronto hearing aid company.

Mr. Trotter, member for Toronto-Parkdale, said Bellone was offering conditional sales contracts or "chests" that some finance companies would not handle there. The other bill passed last year provides for the protection of buyers of consumer goods and for the "fair disclosure of the costs of credit."

Earlier Attorney-General Arthur Wishart said the Ontario College of Physicians and Surgeons is studying an allegation that Emilia Harvard of Bellone was posing as a doctor. The results of the study would help the government decide what action should be taken, Mr. Wishart said.

In reply to questions by Mr. Trotter, the attorney-general said two charges of indecent assault are pending against Mr. Harvard. Tuesday also produced the noisiest sitting of the current session with Kenneth Bryden (NDP)—Toronto—Woodbine the subject of a barrage of government heckling. The rumour was produced by his call for electoral reform before the next provincial election—suggested this year—and his suggestion that political parties be required to make public sources of their funds.

Ross Whitlock (L—Brunel) said the government should stop creating cabinet posts and build "kitchen cabinets."

Transport Minister Irvin Haxton announced the government will permit use of metal studs on car tires in winter and said legislation now will be introduced on the subject. He said further study is being made as the effect of the studs on highway surfaces.

WARNED OFF ROAD

VEHICLE (AP)—Danish motorists should beware of driving between 1 and 4 a.m. on Sundays in August, which Dr. M. Gerger, superintendent of the Vejle county hospital found the most dangerous in the country. He later discovered that three times as many injured pedestrians or bicyclists are admitted to hospital as motorists.

Strike Rights Limited

BY THE CANADIAN PRESS

Legislation recently passed by the House of Commons, which would limit the right of workers to strike, has been met with a storm of protest. The legislation, known as the Industrial Disputes Investigation Act, would give the government the power to call in strikes and to limit the duration of strikes. It would also give the government the power to appoint arbitrators to settle disputes between employers and employees.

Last month, 121 striking non-unionized workers at the Ontario Hydro plant in Niagara Falls refused to return to work after the government had called in their strike. The workers were demanding a measure outlawing hospital strikes.

Labour leaders charged the law was unjust, but have won down of $2,000 and deactivation. They urged the strikers to return.

Last September, Premier John Robarts called a meeting of the Ontario Industrial Disputes Investigation Board to discuss the legislation. The board would be made up of representatives of the government, employers, and employees. The board would have the power to call in strikes and to limit the duration of strikes. It would also have the power to appoint arbitrators to settle disputes between employers and employees.

The Ontario Industrial Disputes Investigation Board was set up in 1957. It has since been used to settle many disputes between employers and employees. The board has been successful in settling many disputes, and it has helped to avoid many strikes. The board has also helped to improve the relations between employers and employees.

Broken Marriage Real Ground For Divorce States Catholic

OTTAWA (CP)—A prominent Ottawa Catholic layman, Judge P. J. O'Shea of the Ontario Court of Appeal, has said that the "breakdown" theory of divorce is a "disgrace" to the Catholic Church. He said that the Catholic Church's teaching that marriage is a sacrament is being undermined by the "breakdown" theory of divorce.

O'Shea, who is a member of the Canadian Bishops' Conference, said that the Catholic Church's teaching that marriage is a sacrament is being undermined by the "breakdown" theory of divorce. He said that the Catholic Church's teaching that marriage is a sacrament is being undermined by the "breakdown" theory of divorce.

Viet Nam Truce Body Said Fraud

OTTAWA (CP)—The United Nations Commission on Human Rights, which is investigating the alleged human rights abuses in Vietnam, has said that the Viet Nam Truce Body is a fraud.

The commission said that the Viet Nam Truce Body is a fraud because it is not representative of the Vietnamese people. It said that the Viet Nam Truce Body is a fraud because it is not independent of the Vietnamese government.

20 Errors Said Made In Horsburgh Trial

OTTAWA (CP)—Rear Admiral (Ret.) John Horsburgh, a member of the Canadian Armed Forces, has said that 20 errors were made in his trial.

Horsburgh said that the trial was unfair and that he was innocent of the charges against him. He said that the trial was a miscarriage of justice and that he was being treated unfairly.

Did You Ever Wonder Why Dominion Sells

ONLY RED & BLUE BRAND BEEF?

Don't be misled by advertising phrases such as "economy beef," "budget beef," "grain fed western beef," "baby beef," etc. Officially, there just isn't no such animal!

The only official grades of beef, as established by the Federal Department of Agriculture, are in order: RED Brand, BLUE Brand, STANDARD Brand and COMMERCIAL Brand.

DOMINION buys only the pick of RED and BLUE brand beef from young steers that have been individually graded by government graders and inspected by the Health of Animals Branch of the Federal Department of Agriculture. No coveal No old bull! No immature heifers! No low-grade stock that has been tendered by injection!

That's why you can always depend on DOMINION for beef that is naturally tender, juicy and full of flavour. And you pay no more... often less... for dependable DOMINION meat!

ALL MEAT SOLD BY DOMINION WHETHER FRESH, FROZEN - PROCESSED, IS GUARANTEED TO PLEASE ON THE TABLE!

Transport Commission to Have Regional Advisory Councils

OTTAWA (CP) — It is likely that the new Canadian Transport Commission will establish regional advisory councils to assist it, Transport Minister Pickersill said in the House yesterday.

However, the idea of setting up a national advisory council has little merit as yet, he said, as the commission begins its study of new transport legislation.

Among other things, the senate bill will establish a single agency to regulate federal, provincial and municipal transport. It will absorb the present board of transport commissioners, Air Transport Board and Canadian maritime commission.

Senators asked why the St. Lawrence Seaway, the only federal transport entity not included in the legislation.

Mr. Pickersill said the seaway had a unique problem because of its international character.

He said it would cause an unnecessary duplication of the new commission was given responsibility over it.

Although he acknowledged a definite statement on how the seaway debt should be met, Mr. Pickersill appeared to support the argument for new bills when he said that the legislation under which the seaway was built is "very clear" on the subject.

The legislation calls for bills to pay off the seaway's capital cost over 30 years.

Earlier, John Stetson, deputy transport minister, said the question of bridging interprovincial trucking back under federal control is "rather complicated" and it will be some time before the trucking section of the federal bill is enacted.

Hees Gets Acclamation From New Riding's PCs

By MAURICE SWITZER

REIGNING — Northumberland-King's George How was last night acclaimed as the Progressive Conservative member of the House of Commons for the riding of Prince Edward-Hastings, after three other nominees declined to accept the former cabinet minister. Prime Minister Mackenzie King, P.C. riding association president E. M. "Ted" Parker Jr. and organization secretary Douglas D. Whelan each received one nomination from the floor of last night's convention, held before some 400 persons in the St. Lawrence Hotel.

Society Immune To Humbuggability

LAWRENCE, KAN. (AP) — Wes Gallagher, general manager of The Associated Press, said today "a new sophisticated society," which he described as cynical and critical, can be influenced only by a flow of factual news, not opinion.

This society doubts the credibility of almost everything, and is immune to humbuggability. Gallagher said. "Facts presented logically have a ring of authenticity that over a period of time, counter the vast majority of the reading and listening public regardless of their politics."

Snow Removal Non-Essential

MONTREAL (CP)—The Quebec government plan introduced today to legislate for dealing with strikes by thousands of workers in the province—and some of the teachers say they resist if the legislation proves itself.

Montreal, Montreal, free after labor crisis. At midnight, 3,500 mail workers employed by the city could not wait the job to support demands for higher pay. One of the jobs the province's strikers do not consider essential and therefore would not continue doing during a strike is snow clearance.

Coyne Is Rebuked By Sharp for Public Fuss Over Private Policy Differences Within Bank

OTTAWA (CP) — James B. Coyne left Ottawa Thursday night executives for three days, revealed an indication to the effect that Mr. Coyne, called to conclude the special divisions with the government's view on the matter, was rebuked by David Fulton (CP) for his "frivolous" attitude.

"You are justified the best possible thing in the three men to go home and settle the differences and get on with the business of operating a bank in Western Canada while we turn our attention to other matters."

"Well, without choosing sides, I'm inclined to agree," said the finance minister.

The bank's useful thing now is in the Bank of Western Canada, which is in a position to settle its internal disputes."

BOGOTA (CP) — Colombia's worst earthquake in 50 years left at least 10 dead and more than 300 injured Thursday and caused panic among thousands of people who fled into the streets. Police and civil authorities here said the quake was expected to mount when reports came in from remote villages out of the quake. The state of Huila, a centre of political violence and banditry for the last 15 years, was the hardest hit. Police said of more than 200 persons killed in Bogota, 200 persons 20 miles southwest of Bogota. Some villages were reported to be ruined.

As reports of destruction increased, the capital, the government declared a state of emergency and ordered reconstruction of damaged buildings worth millions of dollars.

The interior ministry said two deaths Thursday were due to a 10-foot earthquake in the city. One death was in a school, a third teacher followed six hours later.

Incidents of mass terror and individual bravery were reported in Bogota, where 10 Colombians were killed, including two children. A teacher was said to have rescued 40 children from a school in which a falling wall killed his wife and mother-in-law. Tremors shook Bogota for 80 seconds.

Officials said many commercial buildings and houses were destroyed in other cities, including Cali, Medellin, Pereira and Buenaventura. Reports were incomplete because of disrupted communications. The main shock came at 10:17 a.m. The epicentre was close to Neiva, capital of Huila state. The city was reported 70 per cent destroyed. The first pair of quakes was also felt in parts of Venezuela and Ecuador, some buildings in Caracas, Venezuela's capital, trembled for two minutes. No damage was reported in Ecuador.

Time Short For Wilson Peace Bid

LONDON (AP) — Soviet Premier Korygin and Prime Minister Winston Churchill last night round of foreign talks today, reportedly said they looked on ways of bringing peace to Vietnam.

Only five more hours of an informal gathering Sunday night remain for Wilson to get the breakthrough he has sought in many hours of patient probing since the arrival Monday of his Russian guest.

Tuesday's morning hours for a six-hour tour of London. He is due back Sunday morning in time to visit the bank of Earl Marx in London's Highgate Cemetery before driving to Charing, Wilson's country residence, for the final round of talks over dinner.

Wilson's officials did not hide their belief that any early renewal of American bombing of North Vietnam would effectively end any chance Wilson might have.

Hellyer Apologizes to Defence Committee For Mislabelling of Chart of Expenditures

OTTAWA (CP).—Defence Minister Hallyer apologized to the Commons defence committee Thursday night for what he said was the mislabelling of a chart on his department's expenditures presented to the committee Tuesday.

Douglas Harkness, former Conservative defence minister, had accused Air Marshal F. R. Sharp, vice - chief of defence staff and No. 2 officer in the armed forces, of giving the committee a "false" chart.

After the committee meeting, Mr. Hallyer told reporters Mr. Harkness should apologize for an unfair allegation against the military staff.

"I don't consider I have an apology to make to anybody," Mr. Harkness said in an interview.

The chart in question showed that capital expenditures in the defence department in 1965-66 were 17 per cent of the total defence budget.

Mr. Harkness read from the 1965-66 auditor-general's report showing that these expenditures amounted to 14.2 per cent of the defence budget. The difference was more than $43,000,000.

"Your chart is completely false, wrong and misleading," an angry Mr. Harkness told Air Marshal Sharp.

He said the chart was part of the effort being made by the defence department to give the Canadian public the idea that millions of dollars had been saved through integration to buy more weapons and equipment.

Mr. Harkness said the auditor-general's report showed that spending on weapons was $306,000,000 or 18.8 per cent of the defence budget in 1961-62—Mr. Harkness was then the minister—$213,000,000 or 13.9 per cent in 1964-65; and $192,000,000 or 12 per cent in 1965-66.

At the night sitting, Mr. Healey interrupted another witness and said he was worried about a "difference in labelling" of the

The chart should have been labelled armed forces expenditures and not defence department expenditures. The department includes the Defence Research Board and other agencies besides the three services.

Committee Chairman David Groos (L-Victoria) instructed the committee secretary to make the necessary corrections in the chart.

Mr. Hellyer accused Mr. Harkness of creating an "unfair and unwarranted impression" and said that insofar as the chart's figures dealt with service expenditures they were accurate.

Mr. Harkness said Mr. Heller had tried to cast doubt on the figures he had used and which he had taken from the auditor-general's report.

"The chart misled the committee and the country," he said.

Mr. Heller said that under no circumstances would officers give the committee information intended to be incorrect.

Mr. Harkness said he agreed that officers would not engage in disabuse practices.

But at the same time, the minister and his officers were so intent on overruling their case that they had been led into error.

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Detroit Red Wings, who have already passed Toronto Maple Leafs in the National Hockey League standings, are breathing badly on the necks of the third - place Montreal Canadiens.

Montreal coach Toe Blake has a casualty list he could use for a fan.

The mid - season resurgence of the Wings has left them only three points behind Montreal, who have lost only the last two games on the road, and three points ahead of the Leafs, who have lost 19 straight.

Blake's new addition, another personnel loss, has been thumped 5-0 by Chicago Black Hawks Wednesday, Henri Richard winning up with sprains.

key assignments. Defencemen Terry Harper and Ted Harris were already sidelined with injuries.

Richard, injured in a collision with team-mate Claude Provost, is expected to miss both games this weekend. Provost came out of the crash with a deep cut and a bump on his head.

Dave Balon, who fired one goal into his own net as the Red Canadians lost 4-1 to the Red Wings in Sunday's first game, will replace Richard in the weekend lineup.

Although the Leafs' losing streak now matches that of the New York Rangers of 1961-62, coach Punch Imlach is still hopeful.

Imlach says it has always been his lucky number, and because league-leading Chicago is looking for his 13th game without a loss, Imlich says he believes the Leafs may just stop the Hawks Saturday night. The coach has been taking the blame for the Leafs' rapid fall from third to fifth place in the league standings, but at least one member of his team doesn't agree.

Gaile Johnny Bower says: "Everybody is blaming me! Imlich. It's not his fault. It's ours."

"He's been trying to find a winning combination. He's changed lines and players. But he can't go on the ice and check, score goals and stop pucks."

"We fell down, not him."

And Imlich hasn't despaired of his players. He was critical after Wednesday's game

The only line against Detroit with a plus was Peter Stenkowski, Brian Conacher and George Armstrong. The lines that must carry it were crushed. "We just have to react this time out. There is no point in bringing in the minor leaguers. The best are here."

Saturday, the Canadiens continue their current road tour at Boston; the Hawks are at Toronto, and the Rangers visit Detroit for an afternoon game.

Sunday, Canadiens move to New York, Leafs take the ice at Boston and Red Wings are at Chicago for another afternoon start.

Canadians—surely one of Canada's top junior league players—didn't worry about missing the O.A.S. game in the playoffs. And he's a serious playboy.

Just this year the pleasure isn't as bright as usual for the Canadiens.

Reassigned to the league's cellar for most of the first half of the season, the Canadiens finally managed moving two weeks ago and now lead themselves in seventh place following a 3-0 win over Philadelphia's Flyers Thursday.

It's a sad story leading to the top of the points table, but the series' losing streak—five games—includes Klicheber in Quebec and Toronto Marlies.

In other senior games Monday, the Montreal Canadiens beat the St. John's Maple Leafs 3-0, while the New York Rangers, who were given a game in the playoffs, scored the other 10-0 win.

Eddie Heston and Danny Lawson scored for Hamilton.

QUEBEC (CP)—Steno Horvath's third-period goal earned Rochester Americans a 1-1 tie with Quebec Aces in an American Hockey League game Thursday night.

Horvath scored with only 50 seconds elapsed in the period, cancelling out Jean-Guy Gendron's first-period goal for Quebec.

The tie was the fifth of season for both clubs. The Aces edged Rochester 1-0 Tuesday night, now have points in the AHL Eastern Division standings.

Rochester ranks second in Western Division with 61 points.

Moby Joe's Carcass Mammoth Problem

BURGEO, N.S. (CP)—Even if dead, Moby Joe is revealing "unsolved" problems. Farley Mowat, retired keeper of the whale which disappeared Monday, said Thursday the carcass of the Moby Joe must be floated to the surface of the Atlantic off New Brunswick.

"Now we've got a real problem," Mowat said in an interview. "Nobody can get with back of the whale because of the aircraft and doctors say this is a clear indication the whale is dead."

"Doctors said the whale is dead because it had no signs of life," Mowat said. "It was dead when it was brought up."

Whither George Hees?
Whether George Hees, as he strides across the Conservative party conference stage—wreathed as it is in mystery and Orem-Walton shadow factory—will drive a wedge between the Government's chief financial arm.

The other day the former trade minister appeared on television making capital out of the Walter Gordon-Lester (man-in-the-middle) Pearson-Mitchell Sharp schism. Mr. Gordon, the member for Northumberland-Durham, was supported, was on the political left of the Liberal party, and clearly allied with Mr. Pearson in matters of policy, while Mr. Sharp was on the right—yet in and out the cold. At this point Mr. Hees (an old Argonauts man himself) threw in some tactical football language to imply that this was a situation detrimental to the best interests of the country.

Be that as it may Mr. Hees, as we have noted, was seeking primarily to embarrass the Government and at the same time strengthen his own image in the Conservative party leadership stakes.

But Mr. Hees may be committing a tactical error—by not more completely embracing the issue to the lape. With redistribution a major factor in the next federal election he is foraking supporters in Northumberland-Durham supported, was on the political left of the Liberal party, and clearly allied with Mr. Pearson in matters of policy, while Mr. Sharp was on the right—yet in and out the cold. At this point Mr. Hees (an old Argonauts man himself) threw in some tactical football language to imply that this was a situation detrimental to the best interests of the country.

Transport Minister Deflates Douglas' Stand on Viet Nam

By RICHARD JACKSON
OTTAWA.—Something very different from the usual Ottawa offbeat is underfoot in Viet Nam in respect to the issue of the Vietnam War.

In words spoken by the New Democratic and the Conservative, with the Government support, the issue of Viet Nam is being debated in the House of Commons.

James Cory Treads A Thorny Path

By CHARLES LYNN

The Hamilton Spectator
To hear James Cory tell it, a banker's lot is not a happy one.

It would have us believe that he has seen the worst of the world of private banking that came his way as governor of the Bank of Canada, and it is not.

It needs to be said about Mr. Cory that many of his life are self-inflicted, in the words of the poet.

His activities in the world of private banking, following the secular departure from the Ottawa scene, seem to have been defined in his own mind as being a banker's lot.

Canada's Trade

As usual, Canada had a big deficit in trade with the United States in 1966 but managed to make up for it with a healthy balance in dealing with the rest of the world. The result was an overall balance of $400,000,000. Exports of $10,287,000,000, a record, were up from $8,766,000,000 in 1965. Imports were also up, to $9,886,000,000 in 1966 from $8,633,400,000 the previous year. (C. Newman).

PETERSON OVP (CP) — Russell Linn, Liberal minister of Parliament for Durham, says today that the auto industry does not face the crisis it says it does because the Canada-U.S. auto trade pact.

In his weekly radio report on the radio station, CFRB, he said Sunday that as a member of a parliamentary committee on international trade, he learned that 30,000 new jobs have been created by the agreement.

He added that Canada's auto industry has expanded and production is up 30 per cent.

"Without the trade pact, we would be experiencing far greater layoffs," he said.

Mr. Peterson lives adjacent to Oshawa where many of his constituents are employed in the auto industry.

Red Countries Split, North and South, Over Attitude Towards WestGermany

WARSAW (AP) — The mid-day meeting of Warsaw Pact countries here showed that German issues, the European Communist countries are splitting into Eastern and Western camps.

Twelve Communist countries ending the talks among Soviet, East German, Polish, Czechoslovak, Rumanian, Bulgarian, Hungarian, and East German ministers in Poland capital last week concluded the summit of the new West German government and ended the usual process of agreement and understanding.

As diplomats agreed to this, it is clear that the split is deepening.

The last meeting was presided over by Roman's speaking of relations with West Germany. It is a matter that has been discussed for many years. They thought the set should be taken place in Bucharest rather than Bonn and Foreign Minister Willy Brandt should have been and his free that he speaks only for West Germany, not for the whole German people.

But Romania, Hungary and Bulgaria, which have no Communist ties with Germany, have started viewing the law more as a basis of economic relations than of Communist brotherhood.

In West Germany, the Soviet Union and Poland, West Germany is a question of ideology, politics and emotion. For the East German and Warsaw Pact countries, the question is West German recognition, survival and the right to be treated as a West German member and securing the highest possible price from Bonn for present frontiers are permanent, and that nuclear weapons must be decided in the German.

The Warsaw communiqué said the foreign ministers had reviewed developments since the July, 1965, Bucharest declaration, which declared that security and normal relations in Europe require recognition that there are two German states and that present frontiers are permanent, and that nuclear weapons must be decided in the German.

U.S. Balks Red Defence With Multiple Warheads

WASHINGTON (AP) — Spurred by Russia's limited deployment of an anti-missile defense, the United States is embarked on increasing ballistic missile progress that marks a new era in strategic weapons.

Through a huge number of warheads in the main object of the multi-missile defense, and attention is also being focused on highly sophisticated guidance and reentry systems, decoys and penetration aids.

The critical goal is to maintain the United States' capability to destroy Soviet nuclear forces.

As an informed source put it: "We want the enemy to know by the own calculations that we can overwhelm him, when we see they want to attack, his defenses more expensive."

The "fancy" ballistic missile warheads that would separate from Minuteman III intercontinental missiles in flight to confuse enemy radar and electronic countermeasures to jam detection systems.

The United States now has the ability to launch many intercontinental missiles on Russia, 1,500 "Minuteman" IVs, by the end of the year.

Source said the gap in the number of warheads.

Minuteman discussed this as the annual military budget bill to Congress last month, which is to be the number of missiles which is important and reduce the character of the

Quebec Protestant Teachers Threaten To Quit To Back Catholic Colleagues

QUEBEC (CP) — Quebec Protestant teachers threatened Sunday to hold strike action during the remainder of the school year and to return to work only after their Catholic colleagues agreed to a new contract.

The provincial legislature is scheduled to resume today what has been a bitter debate on a strike-siding bill sponsored by the United National government.

The Protestant Association of Teachers gave permission to its 4,000 members to hold strike action during the remainder of the school year and to return to work only after their Catholic colleagues agreed to a new contract.

They say they are a form of work stoppage used by employers to break down the will of the workers to resist in a strike action.

The Montreal Catholic school commission, which administers the education of about 200,000 children, refused Sunday to accept the proposed negotiations.

The bill, which would require the Catholic and Protestant teachers to negotiate a new contract, was introduced in the legislature last week.

More than 4,000 members were gathered in a hall Sunday to support the bill.

Ontario Taxes Likely to Be Unchanged Though Spending Climbs Two Billion

TORONTO (CP) — Provincial Treasurer Charles MacNaughton has announced a budget for 1967-68 that will increase spending by $2 billion but leave taxes unchanged.

MacNaughton said that the government's five-year mandate does not expire until 1968, but he said that the government has no intention of increasing taxes.

Downtown Face-lifting Considered

An intensive study of the downtown district and also the Foster Ward area, south of the CPR tracks with a view of possible redevelopment was approved yesterday by Belleville city council.

Under the proposal the Belleville and Suburban Planning Board will be requested to direct its staff to proceed with the intensive study, instead of completing the city's official plan which was expected to be ready this fall.

Earlier in the meeting a delegation of downtown merchants headed by Fred Dixon, past chairman of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce, asked council to support the downtown redevelopment study.

Mr. Dixon said that a committee of the Chamber of Commerce had been working for the past six months on a "clean up" program for downtown Belleville. However, it was now realized that the problem was much more than the need of more trees.

Rather, he said, the problem was one of bridges and traffic and a complete redevelopment of the entire downtown area.

He said the Chamber had already commenced a plan for the redevelopment of the entire downtown area and noted that downtown grants at up to 75 per cent were available toward the cost of a redevelopment study.

One to three in the downtown area, with destruction of commercial blocks that have not been replaced. Mr. Dixon said, residential areas were being added to carry a greater tax burden. Residential income in the city was $1.61 per cent compared with 11 per cent in the surrounding area.

Figures Called 'Slanted'

OTTAWA (CP)—Liberal Smith (PC—Simcoe North) said Monday the Commons defence committee is being given "slanted" figures.
He made the remark in the committee after Air Marshal E. M. Royal, chief of personnel, told armed forces recruit last year totalled 19,822 persons, an increase of 200 over the 1955 figure.
Air Marshal Royal said he was encouraged by the recruiting picture.
Michael Forrester (PC—Hast.) said he read the figures given by the committee and was disappointed. He said the figures showed that the strength of the armed forces at Dec. 31, 1956, was 106,857, but that the strength of the armed forces last year, was 106,857.

Pension Queries Simple

OTTAWA (CP)—The government Monday unveiled simple, 10-part questionnaire to be filled out by applicants for the federal old age pension system.

Mr. Martin said the government has taken no public position on bombing of North Vietnam because there is not enough evidence to be stopped as the result of an appeal from the U.S.

Mr. Mackay said the only thing Mr. Douglas "considered" about the United States are the contributions to its party and the fact that it is a "great nation."

He said the questionnaire is not a "test" but a "check" to see if there are other things and responsibilities that might be added into the total pattern of the pension.
"I suggest it will be self-selecting," he said, "if our public statements... we have to have the effect of eliminating those instead of creating them, of closing off potentially mild changes instead of stimulating and nurturing the confidential exchange of viewpoints," Mr. Martin said.

The NDP leader said he questioned Mr. Martin's courage in not putting on his convictions that the bombing end and a settlement be reached.
"Canada should have the courage to say we will not set any arms arrangements to the U.S. unless we have suggestions from the U.S. to Vietnam."

CHICAGO (AP)—An experimental diet that shows cancer risk activity almost to a halt by depriving the cancers of an essential nutrient is being used on a group of patients, here at University of Chicago.
Dr. Albert H. Lichten, professor of obstetrics and gynecology, started the experiment more than two years ago with a few patients with a life expectancy of only a few months. Twenty-six patients now are on the diet.
Lichten said six of the patients died before effects of the treatment could be evaluated but that improvement was noted in the others within weeks or months.

Costumes in Demand

Hobby Becomes Business for Train Fireman

(Staff Reporter)

The 1987 prototype for doing up the costumes of the 1987 gown may be the last. But the sartorial sentiment of many a mile celebrating Canada's Centennial is a late-in-the-century dress in its last days of manufacture. The Belleville railroad fireman is an illustrious craftsman, and years ago, began turning this most common of manufacturing crafts into a backyard workshop at his Riverview home.

His reputation as a cutter and maker of period costumes for the railroad has spread beyond the Ottawa district. So much so, he had to add a second entry addition to the workshop to keep up with the mounting demand.

When asked the Centennial, with no collection of costumes complete without a hat and a lower hat — and suddenly it looks like Don has a business like by the tail.

In fact, he's having trouble keeping up with demand. It all started at the beginning of the Centennial when Kingston was preparing to keep up with the mounting demand. "We started making them through," he recalls. "We got a bunch of dressmakers going and we were out. It came to the fact that we had to make them for the event."

Since then the demand has been steady and — as the Centennial progresses — can only increase.

Now, headed by his wife, Mrs. Don, he's a professional working toward a production target of 100 costumes.

The chore can be an exacting one, demanding much attention in the intricate details and fabrics of 19th-century costume.

"This dress here when she gets it it can make about a dress a day — although my wife usually takes on most of them," he says. "It is equally well-suited to most male demand for period dress — although none of it is made here. It's the construction, the fabric of it being original. The original really is the men's ball gown was flared in the 19th century and left by rows of men's cutaways and frock coats, vintage Prince Albert."

"To top them off there is a fair supply of hawser and silk hats."

These are collected through various sources around Ontario — museums and antique dealers — although he prefers to have his own.

"I don't want to deprive them, since these things are really well at a premium," he says.

The costume-collecting also unexpectedly added to an already long list of hobbies for the fireman.

It has brought him into contact with the world of antiquaries and now both have started collecting. "I've had photographs and firearms. I like with costume jewelry."

However, his prime passion still remains in the collection and manufacture of costumes.

his livelihood still is as a C.N.R. fireman.

"This isn't a full time business," he declares, indicating his collection. "It's still just a hobby."

Advantages of Larger School Areas Outlined to Council

The academic and economic advantages of larger areas of school administration were outlined to members of city council at a special joint meeting held last night with local education authorities.

Attending the meeting at the Harry J. Clarke Public School along with council members and city hall officials were members of the Belleville Public Schools Board and the Bay of Quinte District High School Board.

The meeting was for information only, to allow council members to learn of the long range thinking of education officials and their case for larger areas of school administration.

McDonald Smith, chairman of the Belleville Public Schools Board, said the meeting that school boards were administering today only their function being to administer school areas on so as to be successful.

"Municipal councils would have to pay more to have larger school areas before they could get any more to expand," he said.

He said a "go ahead" policy was necessary because the people had to be "sold" on the larger school areas.

Objection to many municipal ities was that the Department of Education was now saying county school areas after they had just accepted the idea of township areas.

But Lawrence Kelly, city councillor, said the idea of township areas was not new, but that they had been suggested in 1958 by the late Howard G. Ferguson, the minister of education.

It was not until 40 years later that the township school areas were actually created when the township school areas were created in 1958 by the late Howard G. Ferguson, the minister of education.

Mr. Kelly said that the thinking now was toward county school areas with a public school operation sufficiently large to support a central secondary school. "Area environments of at least 10,000 people were needed for fully integrated schools," he said.

Experiences had proven that there was no question about the larger school areas being economically sound. School areas with less than 1,000 people could not survive.

Johnson Insists Upon 'Respect for Authority'

QUÉBEC (CP)—It is time to bring back respect for the authority of the teacher, Premier Daniel Johnson said today in a speech to the assembly of the province.

The talks were aimed at setting the record so that neither side would be accused of being the aggressor.

Johnson said in his speech to the legislative assembly on a government bill aimed at strengthening the 11,000 striking teachers' right to work.

Despite vigorous opposition to the bill from the 11,000 striking teachers, Johnson said the Liberal government in the 1960s would not budge on the principle of the bill.

Johnson said the bill would deprive teachers of the right to strike or negotiate labor contracts until June 1968.

Johnson said the bill would be introduced in the assembly on the day after the strike ends.

The government would be in a position to bring the bill into effect when the house is in session of the whole after the strike ends.

Johnson said the bill would deprive teachers of the right to strike or negotiate labor contracts until June 1968.

U.S. Student Group Subsidized by CIA

WASHINGTON (AP)—Officials of the National Student Association say the organization has been subsidized since the early 1960s by the U.S. Office of Intelligence Operations.

The Post quotes W. Eugene Groves, president of the student group, as saying that no officers or employees of the association are aware of the subsidies.

The association has chapters in more than 300 U.S. colleges and universities, where some 1,500,000 students are studying.

In the same edition, the Post quotes a 1964 advertisement in the magazine saying that in its March issue, the magazine "will document how the CIA has infiltrated and subverted the world of American student leaders."

The Post quotes "Independent Voice" as saying the CIA subsidy to the student organization was started at a time when Communist governments were

Engineer Did Not See Bus in Dorion Crash

DORION, Que. (CP)—The engineer of a truck that hit a school bus in Dorion, Que., last night, said he did not see the bus at the time of the crash.

The engineer, who was driving a truck loaded with lumber, said he was driving on a highway when he saw a car in the distance.

He said he did not see the bus until it was too late to avoid the crash.

Robarts in Hospital As Budget Presented

Ulcers Suspected Cause of Illness

TORONTO (CP) — Ontario Premier John Robarts will remain in hospital in London, Ont., until tests disclose the cause of his illness, leading to his recent hospitalization, a spokesman in the premier's office said today.

Press Secretary William Elms said the premier's personal physician, Dr. Hugh McAlpine, described him as feeling good and looking much better this morning.

Mr. Robarts, 57, received a blood transfusion Tuesday evening and was fed glucose intravenously.

In Toronto, the Globe and Mail quoted a reliable source's statement as saying that the premier is suffering from an ulcer.

The premier was taken to his hospital room in London late by ambulance Tuesday, two hours after the provincial legislature adjourned.

Charles Macpherson, leader of the 1967-68 election in the legislature, said he was not sure if Mr. McAlpine had said, "No visitors will be allowed to see him for two or three days while he undergoes a series of tests."

The premier spent Sunday at his home in Grafton, Ont., about 50 miles northwest of London.

Mr. Robarts was in the hospital at Peterborough, 100 miles from London, when he was taken to his home in Grafton.

Mr. Robarts, 57, has no known record of serious illness.

Born in Battle, Alta., Mr. Robarts, a Queen's Counsel, was elected to the legislature in 1961, being re-elected in 1963, 1965 and 1967.

Mr. Robarts was appointed minister without portfolio in 1965 and took over the education portfolio in 1966. He took over from former premier Leslie Frost as leader of the Ontario Progressive Conservative party in 1967.

No Tax Increases For Ontario Citizens

TORONTO (CP)—The Ontario government Tuesday professed its intention to keep Ontario's tax rates the same as the federal government's, despite the fact that the province's budget deficit is $1.5 billion.

Deputy Premier Robert Nixon said the budget "shows that the province will not have to raise taxes to meet its needs."

Initial opposition to the budget was based on the fact that the province's deficit was $1.5 billion, compared with the federal government's deficit of $1.2 billion.

Mr. Nixon said the province's deficit was "a result of a number of factors, including the fact that the province's population is growing faster than the federal government's."

U.S. Lobbying Sows Discord At OAS Rally

BUDAPESST, HUNGARY (Reuters) — Intense lobbying by the United States today threatened to disrupt one of the most important multilateral meetings in the history of the Organization of American States.

Foreign ministers from the U.S. and 16 Latin American nations met today to discuss the 1967-68 OAS budget and to agree on the plan, date and agenda of a proposed Western Hemisphere summit conference.

U.S. State Secretary Dean Rusk arrived here Tuesday and was reported to be leading a high-powered, behind-the-scenes drive to bring about firm agreement on holding the summit meeting in Latin American territory as the major program.

Some Latin American diplomats said the U.S. pressure might result in as many as five nations boycotting the summit because they disapprove of the agenda.

Chico, Colombia, Venezuela, Peru and Costa Rica, among others, were reportedly lobbying for what they felt would be a mainly Latin American event.

Ready to Register Its Big Day

The present pride of Quinte district educationalists, Centennial Secondary School in Belleville, is being prepared for its public unveiling. Official opening day of Belleville's fourth high school has now been set for Feb. 24 — though, technically speaking it's been in operation some time. Classes started in September even though many finishing touches still required attention.

Bonnie Cochrane, 17, Moira SS, Second Best Cherry Pie Baker

She who bakes a cherry pie? One girl in Belleville most certainly can and she did the best in the pie — to prove it. Yesterday Bonnie Cochrane, 17, of 28 Montgomery Street, a student at Moira Secondary School in Belleville, shared second place in Canada's national cherry pie baking contest, held at Vinland in the Niagara Peninsula.

The first place winner was Jane Franklin of Coburg, who shared second place with the Belleville girl was Marilyn Croteau of Roderoy.

She is a second place winner of the contest. The first place winner of the contest, a handsome young man, won an electric range, a new car and a new coat.

But the pie which she won second place was filled with love of the judges.

Bonnie was one of 17 finishing competing in the Vinland event and to achieve this honor she had to beat out scores of other contestants in Belleville high school. She had entered previously in local contests but this was her first trip to Vinland.

At Vinland the 17 contestants — 10 girls and one boy — were judged on the whole pie, the ingredients, presentation, baking and the finished result taken into consideration.

Bonnie worked in a Centennial home for her pie she designed the lattice work top crust in the form of the Centennial crest.

and feels this might have been judged on the whole pie, the ingredients, presentation, baking and the finished result taken into consideration.

Two years ago another Moira Secondary School student, Miss Shirley Treacy, also won second place in the Vinland event. Last year Miss Treacy placed fourth.

School Contractor 'Broke'

NAPANEE — A legal battle between the Napanee District Collegiate Institute and a construction company has been temporarily suspended by the PUC board was told last night by its lawyer, C. G. M. Bann, of Belleville, that the contractor, A. Walter and Company, of Don Mills, filed for bankruptcy February 2.

Legal actions between the company and the board flared last year after the contractor took work on an addition to the collegiate.

Acting on The Message

Police, firemen and PUC representatives on the lower bridges are doing just what the sign says. They're Doing It Now and Keeping People Working by putting up the sign.

Police Efforts Adequate

Two Clerics Decline to Aid In Organizing Search for Boy

TRENTON — Two disgruntled clergymen denounced a search of rumors surrounding the disappearance of 11-year-old Brian Thorne — missing from his home there have easily been brought to light.

Canon G. P. Stansford, St. George's Anglican Church and Rev. David Moore, St. Michael's, said they both checked with police after receiving phone calls reporting them to help organize a search for the missing boy.

Both clerics made out after talking with Police Chief R. H. Rutherford.

Rev. Mr. Moore had a blunt reaction to the situation: "Unfortunately the general public often thinks the authorities have to be running around. The children with their heads off to get anything done."

He refused the calls, but he referred them to the chief. It is every occurrence in him and the police force.

Canon Stansford had a similar response and said he felt the matter was being run.

Legion Initiates New Members

FRANKFORD — Canadian Legion members of Frankford branch 487 held a general meeting at their hall here Monday night. Five new members were initiated. Present to officiate at the ceremony were J. A. Winters, W. C. McKenna, and C. Smith members of the Cobourg branch.

Initiated were W. Warr, J. C. Perry, J. Duggan, and S. Tews of this area, and J. T. Theriot.

Juryman Refused to Take Oath

A "Protestor-distruster" former juror refused to take the oath of a juror in Belleville when he was called to take his place on the jury.

Ronald Longwell, R.R. 1, Froben, caused a minor flurry moments after the five-man jury assembled in Hastings County Court House to hear evidence in the highway death of a Belleville woman Lillian Scott.

Mr. Longwell interrupted proceedings as Counsel for William Hignett finished swearing in the jury.

"I don't see, I don't see any objection to the oath of the juror," he stated.

The juror was momentarily taken aback — then said "I don't see any objection to the oath of the juror," he stated.

Assistant Crown Attorney John Lennox, who was very "mild" at the time, said: "I think if he just refuses to take the oath, I'll have to tell the jury that he is not a juror."

Mr. Longwell's refusal to take the oath was a surprise to the court.

Ontario Gross Product Rises by Nine Per Cent

Expansion This Year Expected to Be Less

TORONTO (CP) — Treasurer Charles MacNaughton said Tuesday Ontario's economy is unlikely to match last year's record performance, but the prospects for 1987 are good, in planning his first budget to the legislature, Mr. MacNaughton said the gross provincial product, the total value of all goods and services, increased by more than nine per cent in 1986 to $28,600,000,000. The number of persons employed rose by 110,000 while unemployment was held to 2.5 per cent of the labour force.

Total salaries and wages climbed by 13 per cent to $17,000,000,000. The economy performed well in 1986, Mr. MacNaughton said, but "beginning in the late spring and continuing through the rest of the year, the boom began to slow down."

"This slower pace of economic advancement was accompanied by higher prices and a substantial decline in the rate of increase of productivity."

"The effects of the slowing down in 1986 will carry over into 1987, with the result that the economy is unlikely to match last year's record performance."

"Nevertheless, the prospects for this Ontario's Year are good. It predicted the gross provincial product will reach "at least seven per cent this year."

He said this figure "is less than the full capacity of this province for expansion in 1987."

A higher rate of growth would stress Ontario's ability to attract large numbers of highly skilled immigrants.

Mr. MacNaughton said the expenditures programs in his budget for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1988, have been designed to "provide an extraordinary stimulus to the overall level of economic activity."

"In addition, to the extent that our provincial budget will, through borrowing, return a larger flow of funds to the economy than it withdraws, we shall add a positive thrust to the prolongation of the economic boom."

"We believe that the federal government should also design the fiscal and monetary policies with a view to stimulating the economic expansion."

In this connection, "the extent of federal-provincial arrangements require a continuing process of consultation."

C. E. MACNAUGHTON
Provincial Treasurer

Deficit Not Abnormal

TORONTO (CP) — Treasurer Charles MacNaughton said Tuesday his forecast budgetary deficit of $16,000,000,000 in 1987 — largest in the province's history — is "as realistic as we can make it."

"I don't regard this as an abnormal deficit," he told a press conference.

Mr. MacNaughton said the current net debt of the government, predicted to stand at $1,020,000,000 at March 31, is "only 6.3 per cent of our gross provincial product as against 6.3 per cent in 1984-85."

Ontario Education and Training Costs Will Rise by $93 Million Next Year

TORONTO (CP) — Ontario will boost its spending on education and training programs by $93,000,000 in the 1987-88 fiscal year, Provincial Treasurer MacNaughton announced in his budget speech to the legislature Tuesday.

The budget figure for the year beginning April 1 is $875,000,000, compared with $782,000,000 in the current year. In addition, the government will provide $185,000,000 in capital aid to universities.

The total of $1,060,000,000 is an increase of 10 per cent over 1986-87.

Further, Mr. MacNaughton said, the Ontario Education Aid Corp. will lend $100,000,000 to municipalities and school boards for construction of elementary and secondary schools.

The overall figure would include funding of university operating grants to $181,000,000 and an increase of $60,000,000 in grants to the universities to bring them up to $441,000,000.

For universities, it would mean they receive an average of $2,011 per full-time student to meet operating costs during the next academic year. The grants will be distributed according to a government formula.

with new universities also receiving special operating assistance in re-equipping their high-tech labs.

Capital expenditures on education and training facilities would amount to $200,000,000, or $5,000,000 more than in the current year. University expansion alone would require $105,000,000, while $35,000,000 would go to technical and vocational schools and $20,000,000 to funding of colleges of applied science and technology.

Additional additional outlays were also planned for such institutions as the Hamilton Technical Centre.

MacNaughton Ignores Traditional 'Surplus'

TORONTO (CP) — Budgetary papers tabled in the legislature Tuesday by provincial Treasurer Charles MacNaughton included a traditional table purporting to show a forecast "surplus" for the 1987-88 fiscal year. The table has always met with derision from opposition members and this year it was ignored by the treasurer in his budget address. Indeed, Mr. MacNaughton predicted an overall deficit of $16,000,000,000.

The "surplus" of ordinary revenue over ordinary expenditure is shown in the table by varying the amount of capital spending financed out of current revenue.

In 1986-87, for instance, a "surplus" of $900,000,000 was calculated by paying for $400,000,000 in capital spending out of revenues in the current fiscal year.

Next year, however, government spending will be up some $400,000,000 and revenues are expected to increase by only $200,000,000. Therefore, to get a "forecast surplus" of $900,000,000, $150,000,000 in capital spending will come out of current revenue.

No New Aid For Farmers

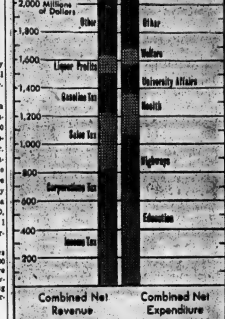

TORONTO (CP) — No new departure in farm aid was announced by Provincial Treasurer Charles MacNaughton in his budget speech to the Ontario legislature Tuesday.

He said the aid appropriation for the agriculture and food departments will be increased by 10 per cent, bringing it to $40,000,000 for the 1987-88 fiscal year.

aid appropriation for the Ontario Department of Agriculture and Food has been boosted by $10 million. "As well, we intend to provide $10 million in training awards have been boosted to $10,000,000 from $10,000,000."

"We have also planned to increase the amount of aid to the short-term training areas."

Ontario Budget

Deficit Forecast

A $16,200,000 deficit — the difference between the combined net ordinary and capital revenues and expenditures — was forecast for the 1987-88 fiscal year by the Ontario government in its budget brought down Tuesday. Expenditures of $2,193,300,000 will include $552,000,000 for education. Revenues of $2,030,700,000 will include $533,700,000 from income tax. On net ordinary revenues and expenditures, the budget is forecast to have a $472,000 surplus.

New Tax-Sharing Formula Is Short Of Ontario Needs

TORONTO (CP) — The new federal provincial tax-sharing arrangement which came into effect April 1 was described by Provincial Treasurer Charles Macpherson Tuesday as "far short of our expectations and our needs."

"The new arrangement merely provides a minor improvement in the basic financial assistance between our two levels of government," he said in his budget address to the legislature.

Under the arrangement, Ontario will pay half the cost of post-secondary education while universities draw direct aid in university financing and phase out capital assistance to technical schools.

The provinces are being given four additional percentage points of corporation tax and one point of corporation tax but Ontario's education grants will be subtracted from these revenue sources.

Mr. Macpherson said there are three ways in which Ontario can control her fiscal policy. The first would be for the provincial and municipal governments to develop "a health care growth policy on a long term basis."

"The federal government would then assume the responsibility for making the required loans."

Technical assistance, within the new growth strategy, through the use of economic levers. . . .

"This episode demands a more appropriate method of sharing revenues on both the provincial and municipal governments can effectively take their expenditures on a longer term basis."

The second option would be to continue to use provincial-imposed "restraints" adjusted in accordance with their revenue capacity, subject to the business cycle.

"The effect," he said, "is to encourage a reduction in expenditures at the very time when resources are required, thus aggravating the business cycle."

The third option would be for all three levels of government to adopt extra-cyclical budgetary levers.

"This option would imply that the provincial and municipal governments should play a major role in fiscal support rather than of their greater expenditures."

However, this would raise a problem of various fiscal policies from provinces to provinces. Mr. Macpherson said he would be the first alternative.

"The choice of this option is that the Ontario government must continue to explore a redistribution of the revenue responsibility for making the required loans."

Health, Welfare Measures Planned

TORONTO (CP) — The Ontario government says it plans to undertake a substantial expansion and strengthening of health, housing and welfare programs in the 1967-68 fiscal year to improve the well-being of every person and every family in the province.

To achieve this, Treasurer Macpherson told the legislature Tuesday, "we propose to spend $400,000 on direct social services and to provide additional allocations of $300,000 through loans and advances for a total of $700,000 — an increase of 25 per cent over 1966-67."

He said in his budget speech, "the over-all extent of our budget for the coming year will be in the order of $200,000,000."

The budget of the Ontario Housing Corp. was increased by nearly 50 per cent — to $30,000,000 in 1966-67 — and including March 31, 1966, from $10,000,000 in 1964 — and includes provision for the Ontario Student Housing Corp.

He said Ontario Housing Corp. will embark on a new Ontariowide Home Improvement program, designed "to bring forward a major program of a substantially larger amount of our people."

The government would assemble and service loan to be loaned to home buyers.

The corporation would also launch its program of purchasing housing units to rent to very income families.

The federal government's Central Mortgage and Housing Corp.

The Ontario Medical Insurance Board would provide more than $125,000,000 in capital financing in Ontario.

"The Ontario Medical Insurance Board would provide more than $125,000,000 in capital financing in Ontario."

He said the "rapidly rising cost of the health plan, the province's mobilization would be less than $200,000, up $400,000 over 1966-67."

He said the coming year $300,000 would be increased in university and hospital financing for education and research. The federal government would pay about $7,000,000 of this amount.

Bursary funds for medical and dental students would be doubled to $100,000.

The budget for mental health was boosted by $100,000, part which will be used to establish eight regional diagnostic and treatment centres for children.

Dissemination of $200,000 would be spent on social and family services, $100,000 of which will be recovered from the federal government.

It will be increased the department of social and family services, "initiatives recruiting 200 additional social workers and welfare personnel."

Mr. Macpherson said the department will provide families with "greater security against hardship, greater assistance to specific problems and greater opportunity to achieve a better standard of living."

Municipalities to Get Over Billion Dollars

TORONTO (CP) — Provincial Treasurer Macpherson said Tuesday that the Ontario government will give municipalities a total of $1,175,000,000 in the 1967-68 fiscal year for grants, loans and advances.

He said in his budget address to the legislature, "the new arrangement merely provides a minor improvement in the basic financial assistance between our two levels of government."

CN Employees Back at School To Learn French

The course totals 60 hours—spread over eight working days of 7½ hours.

It has worked to establish telephone calling schemes for people needing its services. And to raise money for hospitals and other enterprises it has successfully turned to yet another venture — this one more fully appreciated by the community the branch serves: a business.

Its perennial presentation of the annual visit of the national tour of "Spring Tides." Last year this netted the $1,067.

It followed up with "The Sound of Music" — this time taking $243.

On the reverse side of the letter, it is stated that the hospital spent $2,200 on all its ties — including $1,200 for the psychiatric clinic.

Mr. Merritt acknowledged the community support that had granted the branch.

"We're deeply indebted to the citizens of our area for the support they've provided," he said, "and we're attempting to work with them to provide sympathetic appreciation."

He said.

Drug Inquiry Committee Hopes for March 1 Report to House

OTTAWA (CP) — The Commons drug price inquiry panel is expected to report to the House on Tuesday night, with a recommendation that the government should not pass legislation aimed at capping consumer drug bills by law.

Commission Chairman Dr. Harry Bartlett (Liberal) said he hopes to have a set of committee recommendations for the Commons by March 1, based on months of testimony and written submissions from industry, government and consumer sources.

The Alberta proposal, prepared by Dr. Henry B. Steele, associate professor of economics at the University of Houston, called for a general lowering of the patent, trade mark, tariff and other legislative barriers behind which Canada's drug industry operates.

Dr. Steele estimated that his proposals to subject price competition into manufacturing and retailing could reduce the annual drug bill of consumers by $200,000,000.

Key areas where at least 50 per cent could be saved are in less sales promotion, lower profit and removal of the federal sales tax, he said in reply to questions from Dr. Lewis Bryant (P.C.-Bathurst).

But a reduction of this kind depended on the government implementing a whole series of measures to reduce the drug industry's protection.

He cautioned against removing the sales tax alone on the ground that the resulting price reduction, if passed on to the consumer, might soon be eliminated without action on more permanent price-reducing measures.

Dr. Steele, 56, figured that 90 per cent of the drug industry's promotion budget could be slashed, noting that the drug manufacturers have told the committee promotion and marketing accounts for 30 per cent of the sales dollar.

He suggested that the promotion campaign conditions doctors to prescribe high priced, brand-name drugs and acts as a response barrier to small firms trying to get into business with cheaper drugs.

Dr. Steele's brief suggested that the large amount of non-scientific propaganda from drug houses should be replaced by independent news letters, public-relations if necessary.

Dr. Brand challenged his contention that most drug industry material, written and verbal, could be dispensed with. Dr. Brand said Dr. Steele was suggesting the doctors are taken in by this propaganda.

While doctors Brand and Steele differed sharply on several points, they were in agreement on one measure — drug sales should be allowed to advertise particular prescription drugs to the public.

Dr. Steele said this would help give the consumer a better chance of finding a cheaper place to have his prescription filled.

What Quality Beef Does A&P Sell?

That's a fair question.

A&P sells only Canada's finest Red Brand Beef.

But that's not the whole story.

A&P buys only Red Brand Beef that meets our high "Super-Right" Quality specifications. Some beef labeled Red Brand just isn't good enough to be called "Super-Right."

You see we're very fussy about the meat we label "Super-Right."

If you haven't learned the true meaning of "Super-Right" Quality...try it.

Let the taste be the test.

After all, it doesn't matter what the label or grade is. It's the EAT in the MEAT that counts.

The EAT in the MEAT is unconditionally guaranteed in "Super-Right" Beef.

Either you agree that the "Super-Right" Beef you buy is as flavourful, as tender as you think it should be or you get your money back.

Is it any wonder with a quality guarantee like that, that "Super-Right" Beef is the choice of thousands?

It Sounds Important—But Less Than 80 MPs on Hand

OTTAWA (CP) — The provisions struck the whip and the Democrats responded Tuesday night by giving short and final approval to a bill establishing the Canada Deposit Insurance Corp.

All provinces except Quebec have agreed to support the bill. It makes deposit insurance compulsory for chartered banks and federally-incorporated trust and loan companies.

On Canada's financial reputation. The bill, which now requires only Senate passage and royal assent before becoming law, provides detailed and terms deposits with a limit of $20,000 for each account.

All provinces except Quebec are expected to permit entry of their near-banks and Finance Minister Sharp has said he is optimistic Quebec's reluctance can be changed.

The government had to bring down two opposition amendments in recorded votes, and talk MPs into withdrawing two others, before gaining passage of the bill in its original form. The bill is equivalent of the whole and finally, on third reading.

An NDP amendment challenged the provision that allows provincial governments to veto bids by near-banks to come under the legislation. Despite Conservative support the amendment went down at 27.

After five hours' debate the House moved to consider a resolution to provide for a tax increase—announced in the mid-budget in December—to meet the cost of the supplementary old age pension.

Mr. Sharp said the provision giving provinces the right to veto entry under the insurance bill was put in "purely for diplomatic reasons." The act needed cooperation of all provinces, especially Quebec.

Mr. Sharp said Quebec Premier Daniel Johnson had asked Prime Minister Pearson during the weekend to keep the provision veto in the bill.

Mr. Sharp said the provision giving provinces the right to veto entry under the insurance bill was put in "purely for diplomatic reasons." The act needed cooperation of all provinces, especially Quebec.

Maple Leaf Flag Now Two Years Old

OTTAWA (CP) — Sources of the flag and ceremonial banners of the House of Commons on Parliament Hill to-day mark the second anniversary of the royal proclamation of the maple leaf flag.

Apart from the special display, no functions are planned to observe the anniversary. There have been some suggestions that Feb. 15 be proclaimed a national holiday.

Two years ago today, about 18,000 persons gathered on the hill to witness a ceremonial lowering of the Red Ensign and the hoisting of the new flag.

Similar ceremonies took place in provincial capitals and at embassies and military bases abroad.

The House of Commons, the Parliament Buildings, and the attention of the national.

A special committee of MPs and senators has been set up to study a three-year-old government proposal to proclaim October 1, 1947, as the official birthday of the maple leaf flag.

Dr. Leveson-Gower, Minister of the Interior, said that the House of Commons is expected to start to work shortly. The main issue is wording of the lyrics, which may be revised. The flag has been criticized for being too repetitious and the Prime Minister, Mr. St. Laurent, has been quoted as saying "the flag is a good one."

Dynamite Used to Halt Blaze at Prince Rupert

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C. (CP)—A $200,000 waterfront blaze was brought under control late Tuesday night when dynamite was used to close off the fire. The fire threatened to spread to a $100,000,000 plant. The blaze at one time threatened to destroy a nearby steel mill.

Three chlorine tanks at the pulp mill. City defense authorities said if the tanks had reached the tanks they would have exploded and carried the gas to Prince Rupert from the Columbia, Columbia Co., also on Watson Island, 12 miles to the east.

Fire chief W.H. Hill of Prince Rupert made the decision to order the blast. "Everybody in Prince Rupert could have been wiped out," he said. "That chlorine gas is deadly. It's really dangerous stuff."

THE INTELLIGENCER, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1973

"It was a really big blaze. It's the biggest fire here in my memory." The blaze broke out near a warehouse on the long, narrow company dock late Tuesday afternoon. By the time the fire arrived, flames were racing toward the landward end and three large chemical tanks located 200 feet from the end of the wharf. Firemen called for 30 tons of dynamite to prevent the blaze from reaching the shore.

Test in New Riding Will Be Pattern of Urban Voters

Frank S. Pollwell has not committed himself outright tonight to seeking the nomination of the Liberal Party for the new riding of Belleville and the Quinte area. But this does not necessarily justify his lack of commitment as his intention.

For he already has set precedents for keeping his ambitions before a nomination.

Today he is the past decade he has followed a similar pattern. Today he is the past decade he has followed a similar pattern to control himself in a delicate position on his nomination to the Liberal convention meeting tonight to choose a candidate for the new riding. The only certainty is that he will be nominated to the riding.

A politician who has had his hands full in the past decade he has followed a similar pattern to control himself in a delicate position on his nomination to

It was during his majority that the city's first industrial resurgence began — when the city was a city of 10,000 people in the 1930s.

The move was the first major move in the city's history. The city was a city of 10,000 people in the 1930s.

being it is the historic election. At the time of his election, the city was a city of 10,000 people in the 1930s.

The move was the first major move in the city's history. The city was a city of 10,000 people in the 1930s.

His speech before the convention, somewhere around the last paragraph he finally revealed his intention of seeking the nomination.

By second bedroom work, he revealed from public opinion for a while.

Clearly, the Liberals select as the strategic task to discredit the entire Conservative achievement roster by reminding the electorate that:

The same year, Mr. Pollwell returned to public office after again kept his party guessing on his intentions up to the last diary in the provincial election of that year.

He has not to please, Conservative MP Elmer Macdonald.

Now another election appears to be in the air. The provincial election will be in the air. The provincial election will be in the air.

Ald. Joss Throwing Battered Stetson Into the Political Ring

FRANK S. POLLWELL

Follwell Follows Usual Steps In Withholding Decision

Tonight the Liberals of Quinte riding will face a challenge for what may be their greatest provincial election opportunity in years.

For the new Quinte riding contains the biggest lot of votes in what has been an almost complete provincial Conservative domination.

This candidacy always has been closely linked — at least by popular imagination — to the preponderance of the rural vote.

Now, however, the traditional one-party pattern has disappeared under new leadership. From two essentially rural ridings, the new Quinte has been carved — and there lies the significance of the Liberal nomination.

For the new riding virtually ignores the urban vote, giving the Quinte district its first electoral area dominated by the franchise of town dwellers.

While there still is a sizable rural vote tied in the farm-belt of Stoney Township, the overwhelming power balance now is anchored in Belleville and Trenton.

Both communities are at opposite limits of the new constituency. They are linked by the highway suburban sprawl, since the late forties has been steadily forcing urban life into rural folds.

The Belleville vote also may have some smaller significance — either way, it's bigger, since redistribution now places the newer eastern and residential areas in Quinte riding.

Political strategists take the statistics the way a TV commercialized does to correlate, and both Old Party gains in the statistical pattern as a possible election year.

In the last (1963) Ontario election the area now known as Quinte riding included Belleville, Trenton, Hallowell, Fort, Belleville and the big Cassin Forest Tremont base.

Liberal Frank Pollwell took up about 7,500 votes, while Conservative Elmer Macdonald took about 200 votes. Liberal votes could be gained this election in the newer areas of Belleville. If applied against the 1963 loss this reduces the minus margin to 7,300.

Statistically, this calls for changing only 400 votes to win an election, in a riding that under redistribution could have more than 20,000 eligible voters.

This, of course, is only paper printing, and does not take into consideration the great preponderance of an urban population — personally, both local and provincial, party appeal and the emotional endorsement of the fight.

For the Liberals too, there is the prediction that urban areas may mean New Democratic gains in the next election.

The NDP, in the Quinte riding area, is pointed south to this approximation the total votes in 1963 — and the election would be a close one.

Under the new party, the NDP might turn the balance against the Conservative establishment.

But, and one never forgets, the NDP is a party of the future. It is a party of the future. It is a party of the future.

At 31, Donald Joss is a newly committed — to everything from one of Ontario's best-known businessmen to a wretchedly named man.

His move to the nomination is a surprise, since he is a member of the Belleville and the Quinte riding.

He is the son of a well-known businessman, and he is a member of the Belleville and the Quinte riding.

He is the son of a well-known businessman, and he is a member of the Belleville and the Quinte riding.

But, to those who don't know him personally or publicly he may still be familiar for the simple fact of his name.

He is the son of a well-known businessman, and he is a member of the Belleville and the Quinte riding.

He is the son of a well-known businessman, and he is a member of the Belleville and the Quinte riding.

At that event his hat will be in the ring — committed to do so.

He has worn over 200 — everywhere — and it will easily stand him in the crowd at tonight's Liberal convention.

Excessive Bacteria In Milk

A Wallington district farmer, William Terpin was fined $100 in a Police Court yesterday after pleading guilty to a charge of supplying milk containing excessive bacteria. The case was heard by Magistrate R. C. Jackson.

The court was told that the milk shipped by Mr. Terpin last September 1965 was found to contain excessive bacteria.

Liberal Leader Likely to Talk On Budget

John O'Brien, president of the Ontario Liberal Party, said today the Ontario budget probably will provide Liberal leader Robert Nixon with some food for a long of his local interest at tonight's Liberal convention.

Mr. Nixon, 38, M.P.P. for Brant, Ontario Liberal leader since January, will be guest speaker at the convention at 8 P.M.

While not a ready-fundamentalist in the election, he is known for his outspokenness on public issues.

Committee Discusses Legal Abortion Issue

LONDON (CP)—An anticipated committee report in the House of Commons, 25 men and five women, are arguing laws for the legal abortion. The committee is the most important law-making Parliament today — one that could affect up to 100,000 British women each year.

The issue is a legal abortion. The document is the first attempt since Labor came to power in 1924 to get a bill on the statute book laying down guidelines for doctors on the treatment of medical patients.

At present, doctors who find it necessary to terminate a pregnancy work on a shaky basis of case law established only 20 years ago. Illegal abortions flourish both in big-time Harley Street and in seedy back street surgeries and are estimated at 100,000 a year.

The private member's bill presented last year by David Lloyd, 36-year-old Liberal member for the Scottish border riding of Northburgh, Selkirk and Peebles, is running his powerful opposition from leading British gynecologists and religious pressure groups. But it looks more likely to succeed than any of its predecessors.

It passed its second reading last July by a whopping 251 votes to 25, cast on a free vote of conscience without the party whip. Now, with 31 amendments to be debated, it is being referred to committee for the third reading—usually a matter of form. It is expected to become law by the summer.

FOUR MAIN GROUNDS: In the present shape, the Medical Termination of Pregnancy Bill would establish a doctor, in consultation with an adviser, to perform an abortion on four main grounds:

—if there is serious risk to the life or grave injury to the physical or mental health and wellbeing of the mother, either before, at or after the birth;

—if there are substantial risks of serious substantial to the child;

—if the woman's capacity as a mother is likely to be severely overburdened by care of a child;

—if the woman is a defective, or because present under the age of 16 or as a result of rape.

Strong opposition to the bill centered on the last two grounds, particularly on question of a mother's ability to cope, which doctors feel requires a social, not merely medical, decision.

Dr. John Peel, gynecologist at the Queen and president of the Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, says the bill in its present form could mean an abortion for any woman who felt it inconvenient to have a baby.

The RCOG and the British Medical Association have jointly opposed the bill as it now stands, although they are in favor of clarifying the present and murky law. Only four members of the parliamentary committee visiting doctors' bill have been opponents of making abortion easier. But to recent votes Mrs. Rawlin has been joined by letters of protest from Roman Catholic law groups which have mounted a massive campaign to swing Westminster opinion before the final vote.

Mobilizing its guns on the other side is the Abortion Law Reform Association, now reaching the peak of a three-year campaign. In 1930 it drew support from a national poll showing 70 per cent of voters favored some relaxation in the present law.

The figures rose to 81 per cent in favor of permitted abortion where the baby was likely to be deformed.

The question of "social abortion" disturbs many British doctors, and some of its opponents have formed a society to fight the new bill, believing that abortion must be restricted to medical grounds only.

Members of the Society for the Protection of the Fœtus claim it has a valid case against such factors as the danger of the operation, even when performed under ideal conditions; the near-impossibility of detecting abnormality in early stages of pregnancy; and most controversially, all, the point at which the fetus has become a human being capable of feeling pain.

PAIN IS FELT: One leading obstetrician, Prof. James Scott of Leeds University, has been at surgery evidence on late-term abortion showing "babies with eyes and struggling to get off the needle" he operated on the last fetus at 16 weeks.

Therapeutic abortions are usually performed in a hospital in 10 to 12 weeks. The Society for the Protection of the Fœtus claim its own committee members have viewed command special respect from British gynecologists. It is at such a time, the gynecologist who trial on DSE provides the foundation of the present case law on abortion.

Borned round the pregnancy of a 16-year-old girl who had been raped by her guardian. It was prosecuted, tried at the Old Bailey and acquitted.

Borned says that "Abortion on demand would be a disaster."

Over 3,000 Firms Exempt From 40-hour Week

The Versatile Ever Popular Masters of Sound BACK AGAIN
FOR THE FINEST IN ENTERTAINMENT

THE MISSING LINKS
AT YOUR

OTTAWA (CP) — More than 3,000 firms, mostly in the service and retail trades, have been exempted from the 40-hour week provision of the new Labour Code, in addition to the 10,000 exempted by the 1965 Parliament session, the Canadian Labour Relations Board has announced.

Many truckers now work 40 hours a week, and some 40-hour week. In the case of the 10,000 exempted, the exemption has been delayed until the report of a Labour Ministry task force on the possibility of exempting more firms from the 40-hour week.

There are also 100 exempted in special inquiry such as the 100 exempted by the 1965 Parliament session.

Labour Minister Stinson, responding to opposition requests, tabled a list showing the exemption of 3,000 firms from the 40-hour week. The exemption is for a period of 12 months, after which the firms will have to apply for a new exemption. Most of these have already been granted, but a few will have to wait until July 1, 1968.

Under the new law, firms get automatic exemption until the Labour department completes study of their applications and makes a decision.

Only 10 applications were rejected. Another 1,112 received no decision or suspension orders of up to the maximum 12 months. Most of these have already been granted, but a few will have to wait until July 1, 1968.

Of the 3,000 applications and waiting action, 2,645 involve trucking companies. They are exempted for a particular activity, but not for a particular company, meaning that a company reduction in the 40-hour week would seriously disrupt the industry.

It is up to Stinson to decide whether a formal inquiry will be granted.

Four Medals Ontario Piles Up Lead At Games

QUEBEC (CNS)—Ontario continues to pile up medals with only three days of competition left in the first Canadian Winter Games.

Ontario athletes won four medals in Thursday's competition, secured by an overnight haul that started Tuesday. The delay of the start of some events was the last hockey game finished at 1:30 a.m. today.

Ontario won a gold, silver and bronze medal in skating with three silver in short-track events in the medal standings. It made more than Quebec in second place. Medal standings based on three points for a first-place gold, two for a silver and one for a bronze.

Two hockey goals gave the Northwest Territories its first medal of the games when Janet Tournage won the gold

In the women's cross-country and Anna Allen the silver medal while Jackie Crawford of Ontario, the bronze winner.

Ontario's lead in the men's medal standings is even wider. Its team in six, Harry Hustin, won the silver medal, the silver medalist of British Columbia.

Only other medal winner was Alberta with a gold in the 20-kilometer cross-country. Ontario was the winner in shooting with the completion of short-track events. Ontario took the lead over Quebec in medal standings after the day's competition by games officials.

On the curling table, Ontario has 43 points, Quebec 41, N.C. 37, Alberta 33, Manitoba 30, Saskatchewan 27, Nova Scotia 14, New Brunswick, 13, Newfoundland 11, Northwest Territories 10, Prince Edward Island 9, Yukon 4.

Under the official scoring system, a total of 10 provinces and territories take part in a sport, the champion emerges with 10 points, the second-place team with nine-points in one point for the last-place team. Ontario's lead in this system can be calculated only a sport in curling.

The blizzard inhibited some sports, leaving the all-star at the curling table. There were fresh breaks in sport, ideal conditions for curling, and the competition.

Over 100 athletes, wrestlers and volleyball players, stranded in Montreal where their flight was cancelled because of the storm, arrived Thursday night by train. Competition in volleyball and wrestling starts today.

The stranded skiers, mostly American, don't start their events until Sunday, last day of the games.

Skateboard concludes today with winners to be declared in both men's and women's competition.

Only casualty of the storm was a Manitoba skier who sustained a leg injury when struck by a car.

Pete Drugg of Altona, Man., a member of the Manitoba rifle team, was struck with a recurrent nose mid-way through Thursday's competition and was taken to hospital.

Italy - seven girls basketball players crashed and served breakfast at a suburban hotel when their flight was cancelled because of the storm.

Five hockey players made the night in the Montreal Quebec Coliseum, unable to make their way to their medals in the sport.

Shooting: Alberta won the team medal in the 200-metre, 30-day 30-calibre sporting rifle competition.

Track: Three, 38-year-old Calgary carpenter, was top man on the winning team with 1,580 of a possible 1,600 points.

Ontario took the silver in short-point over Quebec, scoring 830 points to 820 for the host province.

British Columbia came fourth with 825 and Saskatchewan fifth with 821.

Anticipation: With competition ending Saturday only five matches separate the two provinces.

Heading into today's 11th round, British Columbia has won 4 medals and lost three; Ontario is 5-5, Quebec 4-6 and Alberta 4-6.

Nearly All Quebec Teachers Stage One-day 'Study Session'

QUEBEC (CP)—Almost all of the 8,000 school teachers are staying away from classes today in protest against a strike-reducing bill which, despite numerous controversies, is close to final enactment.

The teachers are staging one-day "study sessions," although some may join in an anti-demonstration planned at the legislative building in Quebec City.

The legislation itself is due to be third and final reading in the legislature today. The amended form in the province's upper house, having been cleared through the lower house by a Union Nationale government, determined to leave back to work 15,000 Roman Catholic teachers who are on strike.

The teachers began their work stoppage in support of demands for higher salaries. The labor disputes now have given rise to a crisis over the whole question of the teachers' collective bargaining rights and their status in Quebec society. The bill would restrict current and present contracts until June 1968, and set up province-wide salary scales for teachers. It is to be sent back to the lower house, or legislative assembly, for approval of the amendment, made at the suggestion of Premier Daniel Johnson.

But the upper house, or legislative council, is only today beginning consideration of the amendment proper.

Mr. Johnson's amendment would maintain the validity of some final salary offers made to teachers after Feb. 11, the government's legislative stance at a return to work by the strikers within 48 hours of its enactment, with fines as the price of disobedience. Most of Quebec's 4,200 Protestant school teachers are to join the one-day study session, which is likely effective would leave 15,000 Roman Catholic teachers in class.

About 300,000 children in classrooms of the province have been in Montreal Thursday—following the passage of the controversial bill by the legislative assembly earlier in the day—many of the 1,200 French-speaking and 1,000 English-speaking strikers expressed continued support for their union leaders.

But a formal vote as to whether they would go on strike once ordered back to work has not yet come and Sunday at the earliest.

The Protestant Teachers' central organization, the Provincial Association of Protestant Teachers, asked the lieutenant governor to withhold his assent to the bill. Premier Johnson suggested

Sect Told To Return Children

ST. JEROME, Que. (CP)—A judge ruled Thursday that all children—those in custody and those still missing—must be turned over to social welfare authorities by a Lacanville monastery run by a breakaway Roman Catholic sect.

Judge Laurence Prévost handed down his judgment following last month's hearing in social welfare court of a suit case involving a four-year-old girl who had been living in the monastery run by the Apostles of Immaculate Love.

The case came to the attention of the authorities a couple of months ago when some of the parents tried unsuccessfully to take their children home from the monastery near St. Jerome, about 70 miles northwest of Montreal.

It was brought before the court under portions of the Youth Protection Act. A total of 63 children under 18 were involved.

Twenty-one cases already have been settled amicably in the various cases. Thursday's ruling applied to the 18 children now in social welfare court custody as well as another 43 still missing.

The apostles admitted having been obliged to shelter in private homes after warrants had been issued ordering the monastery to turn them over to welfare authorities pending investigations of conditions in the monastery.

Wooler

WOOLER—Mrs. L. E. Bryant returned to her home in the village after spending two months with Mrs. Edith McEwen. Mr. and Mrs. Gary Redford of Montreal spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lora Redford.

Mrs. A. Hill, Mrs. Vera Trill and Mrs. Lora Redford attended the Colony Frolicfest held in Brighton on Wednesday.

The 91 held its regular meeting in the United Church parsonage on Wednesday evening with the convenor, Mrs. L. Turner, in charge. Mr. and Mrs. Percy Goddard and Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Gilling are planning to spend the winter at Flaxton Beach, Florida.

NDP Denies Wanting Firm Closed

TORONTO (CP) — James Stewart (NDP—Toronto Riverdale) called Friday a statement by a Progressive Conservative member that the New Democratic Party tried to bring about the closure of New York Trust was "a lie."

The statement was made Feb. 6 by Allan Lawrence (PC—Toronto St. George) while the legislature was giving final reading to a bill providing deposit insurance for trust companies incorporated in Ontario.

It was repeated Friday by J. W. Howe (PC—London South) who said:

"You asked a question every day, trying to start a run on this company."

Mr. Stewart said the NDP questions, many of them posed by himself, were pertinent and reflected the party's interest in the stability of the financial community.

He asked whether the company had filed $25 million in assets and whether it had liquid reserves amounting to 50 per cent of deposits, both conditions required by law.

Laurie Brown, minister of financial and commercial affairs, subsequently informed the House that Trust was late with its financial statement and reserves exceeded requirements.

Hees, Martin, Douglas, Buck Urge Action

LONDON, ONT. (CP) — Four politicians with opposing views agreed Friday revolutionary action is necessary to cope with the technological revolution, but they couldn't agree on methods.

Unemployment, Marxism, Vietnam, nuclear armament, world peace, education and economics were among the topics discussed at Delmore Hall, a modest apartment complex on social change, at the University of Western Ontario.

Speakers were Paul Martin, minister of defence; George Hees, coordinator for the national Conservative leadership; T. C. Douglas, national New Democratic Party leader; and The Right Honourable of the Canadian Communist Party.

Mr. Douglas summed up the results of the three-hour debate. He said they had given lip service to the technological trend and offered solutions. They will only become revolutionary if they carry them into effect and carry them far.

Mr. Martin described the modern world as a "global village" on the verge of a tremendous co-operative enterprise to end the spread of nuclear weapons.

He said Canadians must find methods of improving the quality of life in the "global village." The distribution of war, unemployment, mass consumption and material education are the problems of all political parties.

Mr. Hees said modern scientific education and retaining programs for workers displaced by automation is necessary.

Mr. Buck announced that Mr. Martin, coordinator of the Vietnam peace, said the Vietnamese are defending their homeland and Canada should aid for the homeless Vietnamese in U.S. troops.

Quebec CP-Toronto

labor strike to years ahead. But a spokesman was pleased to say that was a new law passed by the legislature in 1965.

The key man in the situation is Raymond Lalonde, president of the 30,000-member Canadian Union of Public Employees (CUPE). He said the union is not interested in being included in a second round of talks by provincial teachers.

With the help of 4,000 members of the Provincial Association of Protestant Teachers, the CUPE closed nearly every public classroom in Quebec Friday and teachers said they did not study the much-delayed legislation.

Escorted into law at 11:45 p.m. Friday, Bill 25 ordered teachers back into their classrooms Monday morning and extends their expired collective agreements until June, 1968.

In Montreal, news of the bill's passage was quickly followed by the announcement that officials of Quebec's two most powerful labor groups—the 200,000-member Quebec Federation of Labor and 300,000-member Ontario Federation of Labor Unions—had called a joint meeting for Monday.

The CUPE issued a statement calling the bill "a threat not only against the teachers but against all workers" and urged establishment of 108 "solidarity committees."

Old Enmities Gone in House

By RICHARD JACKSON
Special to The Intelligencer

OTTAWA — What's happened in the House of Commons? All those old political enmities — those last and bitter words — those long years of fire and ice?

Suddenly, all is so warm and friendly, almost affectionate. For the first time in years, the floor of the commons is off. Conservative Leader Diefenbaker and the Prime Minister's personal secretary, Mrs. Diefenbaker, are talking to each other in a friendly way.

And there is another strange sight. The Conservative Leader is talking to the Liberal Leader, Mr. Lester B. Pearson, in a friendly way. Mr. Pearson is talking to the Liberal Leader, Mr. Lester B. Pearson, in a friendly way.

Boy's Disappearance Leaves Police in Dark, Speculation Rife

By MAURICE STEINER
TRENTON BUREAU

TRENTON — It was less than 12 hours after the disappearance of a 12-year-old boy that police officers were having a field day trying to find out what happened to him. The boy, who was last seen on the morning of Feb. 27, was reported missing by his mother, Mrs. Mary Ann Thompson, who lives at 1000 E. 10th St. in Trenton.

Conflicts Are Hungrier

SAIGON (AP)—United States forces have unleashed the greatest ground assault since the Vietnam war. They have sent 4,000 men against the Viet Cong's national headquarters and said have sent the Cambodian border.

The drive, ranging to 15 miles northwest of Saigon, has been described as the most serious since the war.

CPR Reports Four Dorion Gate Incidents

DORION, Que. (CP)—The CPR yesterday grabbed the Dorion Wednesday at a Board of Transport commissioners' inquiry into a 10-minute train level crossing collision.

It was suspected because the train was set up to travel on the 10-minute CPR freight train and a chartered bus packed with 45 students in this country 30 miles west of Montreal.

The train was supposed to be stopped at the level crossing and the bus driver said he saw a red light.

The CPR entered the picture after the collision, the players after the train of Dorion, called witnesses to assist of a petition in to the court to be heard today, asking for allocation of the CPR costs.

The train did not stop because the engine was broken down and was about 100 feet from the crossing. It was at the crossing level of the light.

The case also over the wide combat zone were crime-ridden by helicopters, transports, jet fighters and observation planes.

On the heels of the paratroopers, helicopter-borne soldiers landed on the ground near the Viet Cong's base.

Powdered columns of tanks, armor, personnel carriers and military moved up from the south and around the flanks to complete a loose encirclement of the area where U.S. forces hoped to trap the political leadership of the Viet Cong.

Initial reports from the battlefield indicated Viet Cong resistance to the first assault was confined to sniper fire, body bags and mines.

The Communists' Senate committee accepted a legal opinion by Committee Counsel Yves Fassin that the government should be recommended to request the implementation of the Constitution.

Mr. Justice Landreville, 47, later made surprise appearance before the committee and asked for an adjournment until Monday to consider his position.

India Cuts Congress Party Vote

NEW DELHI (AP)—India's ruling Congress Party headed today for its next election, showing in the 20 years since independence its status as the dominant force in the fourth general elections.

Opposition parties were making considerable gains but it was still too early to predict how much the Congress party's margin in Parliament and the state assemblies will be reduced.

Results for 53 of 530 seats in the new Lok Sabha—lower house of Parliament—were expected by noon. More seats in northern states where Hindu nationalism has centered. The party had only 15 seats in the Lok Sabha.

Of 1,500 seats available, Congress had won only a total of 1,490, Congress had 800 or 51 per cent. The average vote 51 per cent in the 1953 elections.

Despise Strike Halt GM Layoff 'Inevitable'

MANHEIM, Pa. (AP)—Under orders of a striking union, leaders of a plant Ohio plant are attempting to lead their United Auto Workers back to work immediately and not start a reaction elsewhere that has made them more than half million dollars.

The order came from UAW President Walter Reuther and his 10-member executive committee in a telephone meeting at Detroit Thursday night. Robert Ball, president of Manheim plant, promised to follow the order.

Ball called a membership meeting for noon EST and UAW executives said they anticipated an end to the seven-day wildcat without the help of the afternoon shift.

With 125,000 made in 37 plants across the United States, GM said it would get factories back in production as quickly as possible.

But the company added: "Everything depends on the flow of parts from Manheim."

where the strikebound Fisher Body Division plants makes body components for 90 per cent of GM's cars.

The wildcat strike seemed certain to affect operations of 150,000 of Canadian GM workers.

A GM of Canada official said Wednesday night that a layoff of workers at the main plant in Oshawa, Ont., is "almost inevitable" despite the end of the strike.

Many of the nearly 18,000 Canadian GM workers may still be held off for a short period, briefly because a shared Fisher body parts manufactured at the Ohio plant will not be available in Canada for a short period, a GM of Canada spokesman said.

Some 15,000 GM employees in three Canadian plants scheduled to be laid off Friday night because of the expected shortage of body parts and stock.

The main plant in Oshawa was scheduled to close tonight, leaving 5,000 unskilled employees out of work.

At Mr. Thoren, GM, north of Montreal, the new GM plant scheduled to close Friday night with the layoff of 1,200. Also likely to be out of work are 800 at Windsor, Ont.

But the board threatened to take over local GM plants in the event the UAW supplier plant refused to ship parts until Tuesday night.

UAW president called the strike illegal and said it violated the UAW-GM contract and the UAW constitution.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Brown Wed for 50 Years

Anniversary congratulations were received yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown of 1400 Main St. as they were "at home" to friends and relatives on their golden wedding day.

The couple was married 50 years ago at a military wedding in St. Thomas, Canada. The groom dressed in the regalia of the 6th Highlanders.

Mr. Brown is a native of Belleville, while his bride of February 25th, 1917, the former Anne Anderson, was born in England.

A veteran of World War I, Mr. Brown saw action in Amiens, Valenciennes and Cambrai. Following demobilization he joined the Canadian National Air Force in Belleville and from then until he retired in 1940 says he was out three years and two weeks.

Yesterday, close to 300 friends and relatives offered personal congratulations to the joyous and happy couple, while dozens of congratulatory messages were also received.

At the first they were also present with a money tree. The couple has one daughter, Mrs. John Ward. Their 10-year-old son, Bill Brown, is a member of the Belleville and St. Thomas.

Nursing Home Act
Outlined to Group

TORONTO (CP) — Those who on many occasions are visiting nursing homes in Ontario were shocked last week when they were told that the government is planning to pass a new act governing nursing homes.

The act will give royal assent in July but the regulations will not be published by the government until Feb. 15, when they take effect.

The act will give the provincial department of health authority for the lack of copies and said they would be mailed to all nursing homes in Ontario.

It is said a main purpose of the provincial legislation is to get uniformity of standards across the province. It sets up conditions for licensing nursing homes and defines their scope.

1. That a medical officer of health shall inspect every licensed nursing home at least once a month.

2. No one may admit more than six nursing homes.

3. Sleeping accommodation arrangements, including space, light and ventilation, are which the National Geographic Society says is the first albino gorilla known to science. The animal

First Albino Gorilla in Zoo

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Geographic Society has announced the discovery of the first albino gorilla in Africa.

Word of the discovery was received by Dr. Arthur C. Sill, director of Tulane University's Delta Regional Primate Research Center, who told the story in the March issue of the National Geographic Magazine.

Dr. Sill said the albino gorilla was found in the forest of the Republic of the Congo. It was found by a local hunter who brought it to the center.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Geographic Society has announced the discovery of the first albino gorilla in Africa.

Word of the discovery was received by Dr. Arthur C. Sill, director of Tulane University's Delta Regional Primate Research Center, who told the story in the March issue of the National Geographic Magazine.

Dr. Sill said the albino gorilla was found in the forest of the Republic of the Congo. It was found by a local hunter who brought it to the center.

Easy
does it.

Maybe for you. Not for us. When it comes to making 5 Star, there's only one way. The difficult way. Which means selecting whiskies from our five distilleries across Canada (only Seagram's has five, by the way). Then blending and re-blending them to get 5 Star's easy taste.

Is it worth it? For you, definitely. And once you start telling your friends about this easy whisky they're missing, it'll be worth it for us too.

By the way, have you seen our elegant new bottle? Easy on the eye.

SEAGRAM'S
5 Star. Easy whisky.

Civil Service 'Usurping' Role of Government

OTTAWA (CP) — The civil service "usurpation" of the government's role in the public sector, according to the Senate, is a serious threat to the country's future.

The Independent Liberal senator said officials in Ottawa have been using various means to take over the government's role in the public sector, he said.

"There is a growing feeling that the public service is almost usurping the role of the government," he said.

The Alberta senator said the 1965 postal strike in Quebec, Ontario and British Columbia arose from the postal workers' frustration and grievances going back for many years.

The "job office department" needs to be overhauled from top to bottom.

Senator Carleton, director of the School of Advanced Management, expressed "very strong reservations" about a government bill granting the right to strike to many federal employees.

"The other senators expressed similar reservations but the measure was approved unanimously on second reading approval in principle. Final approval was scheduled for today."

The bill and two related measures to set up collective bargaining and arbitration machinery for 20,000 public servants were passed by the Commons Monday.

At Wednesday's sitting, the Senate gave second reading to the measure. Public Service Staff Relations Bill, opened debate on amendments to the Special Administration Act and deferred debate on the third bill, which revamps the powers of the civil service commission.

Senator Carleton said he feared that strikes by civil servants would harm the public interest and cause anarchy. He called for labor courts to decide wage disputes.

Senator Jean-Paul Deschamps (Liberal), deputy government leader, said the bill could mean "catastrophe" to prevent the public interest from being harmed.

He said the bill would not be given the right to strike and would cover only conditions and compulsory arbitration procedures.

Senator Arthur Bessie, former Liberal labor minister in Ontario, said strikes are costly to both sides but sometimes are necessary. To should the right to strike was a denial of freedom.

Russian Admits Rockets Could Reach Target

MOSCOW (Reuters) — The Soviet Union's civil defense officials have admitted that the country does not have a fool-proof defense against missile attacks or even against aircraft.

The Soviet Union's civil defense officials have admitted that the country does not have a fool-proof defense against missile attacks or even against aircraft.

"In practice it is impossible to intercept completely all modern planes and, even more so, rockets launched through space. A certain number of them may reach the target."

Monday, another Soviet official said that the Soviet Union's civil defense officials have admitted that the country does not have a fool-proof defense against missile attacks or even against aircraft.

OK to Take Bets to Track

WELLAND (CP) — A recent decision by the Ontario Court of Appeals permits persons acting as agents for others to carry money in a race track for parimutuel betting, says lawyer John G. Gagnier.

Mr. Gagnier recently defended two Welland ladies and drivers, Gilles Bisset and Renee Landin, on charges of taking bets.

The defendants were convicted but Mr. Gagnier last week took a successful appeal to the Appeal Court in Toronto.

Mr. Gagnier said evidence was presented that the defendants were carrying money for parimutuel betting in the race track in Port Hope and in the vicinity placed bets in the parimutuel machine there for a part-time machine.

other people. They were paid $1 or $2 for placing the bets, he said.

The lawyer said the conviction was based on the grounds that a person cannot be convicted of being engaged in betting if he carries money for someone else to be accredited track and book it through a part-time machine.

SPORTS

By Geo. H. Carver

They called him the "Bronze Warrior" the man with the long beard and the remarkable hair.
The "bronzes" athletes called him the "Fighting Mo-..."
By intent that is what he was.

He was Tom Longboat, a full-blooded Indian who made his legendary career from track. From his many distance runners, he was the most glorified.

In 1906 the speedy Indian had hoped a mediocre career by breaking all records in winning the Hamilton-Buffalo relay, at that time as important as any event which he had ever won.

Winning the famous Boston Marathon the next year surprised us and he was the young Indian himself. It was the zenith of his career. This was the belief he had dreamed of and for which had trained for throughout his years.

Later, he felt that though he went on to greater fame, no other victory brought him the great thrill, the feeling of achievement, the satisfaction of a job well done.

In 1908 he felt his title for the Olympics marred when called for England. He was anxious, trained hard and was in perfect condition for the great event.

At the 10th mile he was so far in front of the field that he was conceded the race. Then it happened.

Suddenly he stumbled, picked himself up and ran. He had collapsed with night of the goal.

Later he said he thought it was the English air. It was 90 fathoms below the 100. He said, "I felt as if I was dragging a wagon behind me."

They thought he was through. Longboat wasn't sure. Nothing like that had ever happened in his life before. But the next year he staged a comeback and defeated Danieles in U.S. champion in New York.

But there was too much money to marathon race. Longboat had to make a living. He returned from the sport but was unable to make a living in 1912 he went to Scotland and met Willie Williams, the Finnish Plan and Albin Kärrens, the English marathon.

He beat Willie by twenty-four miles and clipped a fifth of a second off the world record for the fifteen mile course.

Longboat believed in taking the lead and keeping it. It is a rule, "I always lay back. Many people think I was a sailing ship. But he was a new hand, he said."

After the Indian champion admitted that Tom Wood the Englishman was the only man he was ever afraid of. "But that," he said, "I was always neck-and-neck over the whole course with everything on my mind."

It was Wood who opened Longboat to a mishap the world record again at Hamilton's Park, Toronto. They were running against Albin Kärrens and Billy Gould. In a last minute sprint, Longboat broke the lead he had been in front of and set a new world record of one hour, 18 minutes and two-fifths seconds for the 15-mile course.

"That made me an li," he said afterward. "I couldn't shake him. He pushed me every mile of the way."

But the crowd's enthusiasm broke more than the world record that day. He broke a ribbed heart that made him believe he would never be able to repeat the performance.

He felt that from then on it would be all downhill. He would just be an athlete. He had reached the heights where a man could not get further. His return, undisturbed champion of the world and afterwards the only to establish for charity affairs.

He was an amateur runner. He was not tall, five feet six and stocky. He never dined. Good healthy meals like steak and potatoes, plenty of walking and everything in moderation, including training.

In his heyday he walked 18 miles a day to keep in shape. He believed that a man should never run against himself. Over-exercising is the bane of any athlete, he would say.

At the age of fifty he retired and went back to his job as a janitor, never broke. His only ambition, a wife around the recreation after supper. Just a name, just 12 to 15 miles.

Blues Blank Wings

Chancy, a former player with the Leafs and now a former NHL referee, has guided the Leafs to three victories in the four times he has refereed since he last played when he was 10 in his latest act.

His only loss came last year in the Stanley Cup semi-finals, when the Canadiens won in four games.

The Leafs led 3-0 at the end of the first period as goals by Black and Koon, Duff and the wings to 3-1 with the only goal of the second period, but the goals came back in the third with three goals.

Johnny Brower, Toronto's referee, played a very good game in his first game as referee. He was particularly sharp against Jack Black and Koon, Duff and the wings to 3-1 with the only goal of the second period, but the goals came back in the third with three goals.

was in the scramble. The Leafs had a shot at Montreal's Charlie Hodge, who played the full game in Montreal.

Ed Giacomin turned in a strong performance for the Rangers by kicking out 30 shots to register the seventh, eighth of the season, top in the league.

Phil Goyette did most of the work on Detroit's goal as he fought off Alex Delfino and Gary Bergman behind the Red Wings' net and passed to him who was unguarded in front.

After that Giacomin put on a starting performance and stopped Dan Hendon and Gordie Howe on breakaways in the first period.

He was also injured in the third period when the Red Wings hit him with 15 shots. The Leafs had 31 shots at goalie Detroit's goalie Charlie Hodge.

The victory was the third in a row for the Rangers, strengthening their hold on second place in the standings and moving to within 18 points of league-leading Chicago Black Hawks, who were idle Wednesday.

The loss was Detroit's fifth in the season.

Peterborough Shuts Out Juveniles 7-0

Peterborough's 4th Wing Pipers are Belleville's first. The game was played in the 10th round of the Ontario Minor Hockey Association.

The Pipers blanked Lou Smith's Thistles 7 to 0 in Peterborough.

Second game in the two-day series, will be played Sunday afternoon in Belleville. Game time is 1:15.

Peterborough scored two goals in each of the first two periods and set a new record with setting a 7-0 in the second.

But the Belleville boys all the scorers.

J. Haines scored three goals with B. Doherty, scoring two. D. Patterson and M. Breen scored Belleville's 10th goal.

The winners scored twice in the last minute and a half of the first period to start the rout. Doherty fired both goals and Patterson made it 3-0 early in the second.

Haines scored his three in succession and Breen added the final. Each team drew 10 penal ties.

Victoria Stops Gulls

VICTORIA (CP)—A scrapping of the last goal and injury to the Sox Barlowe, letting three out. Lou Johnson, Mike Labadie, Janssens and Labadie each scored.

Victory was the third in a row for the Rangers, strengthening their hold on second place in the standings and moving to within 18 points of league-leading Chicago Black Hawks, who were idle Wednesday.

The loss was Detroit's fifth in the season.

Phil Goyette did most of the work on Detroit's goal as he fought off Alex Delfino and Gary Bergman behind the Red Wings' net and passed to him who was unguarded in front.

After that Giacomin put on a starting performance and stopped Dan Hendon and Gordie Howe on breakaways in the first period.

He was also injured in the third period when the Red Wings hit him with 15 shots. The Leafs had 31 shots at goalie Detroit's goalie Charlie Hodge.

Disloyalty in Defence Offices Made General Want to Vomit

OTTAWA (CP)—A. Gen. Frank Fleury says disloyalty and near disloyalty in defence headquarters last year made him feel like vomiting.

He said "I came to the end of my rope" last week last July at Confederation, one of the five top posts on the defence staff. He was then ill and three years ahead of normal retirement age.

Gen. Fleury also said a host of Commission defence committee Wednesday that "recruiting of information was practically nonexistent" to the point where "the whole headquarters reminded me of a giant spider."

He was not asked to elaborate on this or on the point concerning disloyalty, but questions are expected when he resumes his ordinary today. Defence Minister Hallway is scheduled to lead him.

Gen. Fleury did say at another point Wednesday that things got to the point where Mr. Hallway was dealing directly with subordinate officers instead of with the five members of the defence staff.

"Officers working for me knew more or said they knew more or thought they knew more about what was in the mind of the minister than I did."

There was a tendency, he said, to give military officers to assist pretty close to the political line.

The former chief of Quebec Command said a standard side around headquarters concerns the officer who leaves his office and instructs his secretary: "If my boss calls up while I'm away, be sure to get his name."

Gen. Fleury said at the start of his testimony in a report to Harold Wilson (NDP-Vancouver East).

"There was evidence of disloyalty and near-disloyalty in the past Ministry where one, twice or three times a week I felt like vomiting."

He said he could no longer serve continuously in such an atmosphere and asked to be released.

He had been an enthusiastic supporter of command integration, begun in 1964, but later withdrew.

learned considerable mistakes about the direction and scope of the program. He had expected his doubts to Mr. Fleury in defence committee and his secretary.

Gen. Fleury said that a few years earlier in become convinced before his retirement he was told by Air Chief Marshal

Frank Miller, chief of defence staff, that Mr. Hallway wanted to see him at a certain time and place. It was to be his first private meeting with the minister about writing in Ottawa about a year earlier in become convinced before his retirement he was told by Air Chief Marshal

Miller. Gen. Fleury said at another point that integration was "going from one organization to another in a worse one."

It would take 15 or 20 years to sort out integration. Some of the problems of integration had not even been uncovered, let alone solutions found for them.

There would be a "dismal break on the dock" the first time Canadian sailors in their new Canadian boats a day remark from American or British sailors.

Mr. Malcom says two principles have been basic to Canada's defence for the last 10 years—compulsory with British and U.S. military organizations on which Canadian defence has been greatly dependent, and voluntary recruitment backed up with local or regional reserves and militia units.

In addition to diversifying these principles, he writes, Mr. Hallway has yet to make a unified Canadian force would fill in with distinctive NATO formations under Canada's treaty obligations.

"Either he was not going to be the minister's plane or he was not willing to see the truth," Gen. Fleury said.

He added that he had had confidence in Air Chief Marshal Miller.

Montreal Teachers May Strike Again

MONTREAL (CP)—Roman Catholic teachers in Montreal, who ended a five-week strike Monday after the government brought in legislation making their unions illegal, are talking about a new walkout Friday if they don't get a satisfactory back-to-work agreement from the Montreal Catholic school commission.

A spokesman for the French-speaking, 1,200-teacher alliance says professors' colleagues at Montreal said Wednesday that union agreement is reached with the commission by noon today a general meeting will be called for tonight to decide whether to stage a strike Friday morning.

He said a guarantee proposed by the commission makes no mention of such things as possible overtime pay for teachers to help students catch up with their studies.

The alliance teachers, with 1,200 English-speaking colleagues, were the major group among 12,000 striking Montreal Catholic teachers in the province ordered back to work last week under government legislation.

In the Chaudiere region near Montreal, 18 elementary teachers voted Wednesday to return to work after receiving a satisfactory back-to-work agreement from their commission. They were the last of the 12,000 teachers to hold out.

'We Are Being Invaded by Garbage', Housewife's View of Gifts

MONTREAL (CP) — "We need two lives and an extra gift!"

This was the kind of exclamation that faded members of Canada's Parliament Wednesday as the Senate's Christmas celebration on consumer products had hearings here.

There was no report of a senator or an MP raising the extra-gifted question.

"The travelling companion's picture also heard angry demands for a lowering of gift prices and the abolition of trading stamps and 'bonus' gifts.

"I don't want any pink stamps or two Bataan rings with my foot," was the way one Quebec housewife put it in the Senate.

Outspoken administration in consumer products, "We're being invaded by garbage."

The committee table was piled high with household items, consumer innovations and extra gifts packaged inside out of what some shopping bags in demonstration pointed out as misleading packaging and misleading prices.

"A woman member recently bought a clock in the Sherbrooke drive and found it had an extra heart, live and guard which added more than the cost of the clock," said Gerald Bruden, Quebec president of the Consumers' Association of Canada.

"We made live lives and as extra gifts!"

Mrs. Bruden said that in recent years, Quebec more than any other province has been subject to a high-pressure campaign from trading stamp companies. It was now almost impossible to step in a Montreal store that did not give stamps.

She was an early witness at the committee's lively Monday hearing here before it moved on to Quebec City today to study the Toronto and London, Ont.

Chairman of the hearings is Senator David Croft who described the members as "housewives in livery to add mass recommendations to consumer grievances."

Agnes Higgins, executive director of the Montreal Die Daily, said 50 per cent of Montrealers are on deprived diets.

"They are slowly starving. They cannot afford to live," she said.

She asked the federal government to supply milk free to pregnant mothers and school children.

Other witnesses attached county heavy packaging, misleading advertising costs, misleading prices and weights, the large disparity in prices of similar quality goods, and, of course, the trading stamp.

"There's never this we are a bunch of fools," Veronique St-Onge, head of the Montreal Information Figures, said, "They think the housewife wants to spend her time on childish activities like painting stamps in little books."

The 300,000-member Protection des consommateurs de Québec presented a brief outlining "basic government measures" in the face of the rising cost of consumer goods and increasing indebtedness of provincial cities.

The brief said some companies deliberately weaken products such as cars or cycle motors but the consumer will soon have to replace them.

The consumers' association brief presented by Mrs. Bruden produced figures to show that trading stamps have no fixed value — that a book of stamps might be valued at $2.00 when used by one buyer but might only be worth 10 cents when applied to a second electric

Co-op Says

REGINA (CP) — A co-operative wholesale company Wednesday criticized national advertising as "excessive and a waste" of money.

In a brief to the Joint Business Commonsense commission on consumer prices, Federated Co-ops Ltd., said many of the new products "serve neither the consumer's advantage nor need."

Quoting a trade magazine, the Saskatoon-based co-op with 220 members between southern Ontario and northwestern U.S.A. said a "typical retail outlet" is offered 3,000 new products each year but only 300 each on, and many that are never are discontinued.

Numerous

A. V. Kroll, the company's research director, told the one-day hearing the cost of new product failures "is passed on to the consumer through the new products that do catch on."

Brotherhood

A Peterborough Examiner editorial elsewhere on this page takes a stimulating, if cynical, view of the observance of Brotherhood Week.

Brotherhood as seen against the background of a perpetually warring world, the editorial says in effect, is an impossible thing. It has been said that "as long as man is man there shall be wars."

And there are all those other bogies that threaten to divide mankind—race, color, economics and even religion. Man is what he is and his behavior toward his fellow man will be governed by the things that are in his circumstances at the moment.

To sum it up in terms of brotherhood, or brotherly love, might be true to the old saying "All is Fair in Love and War." Thus man is a fickle creature and brotherhood may not be present in any given situation. It depends on the circumstances, and the man who plays you on the back one day may have the proverbial knife in your back the next.

For all that, Belleville has set a stirring example of the ideal of brotherhood which should not go unmentioned. At the Armistice on Wednesday night no fewer than 1,000 Belleville men attended a dinner which was the highlight of Brotherhood Week in the city.

As the Rev. Richard Jones, executive secretary of the Canadian Council of Christian and Jewish Leaders, had such an event been held in Toronto it should have drawn 30,000 having regard to the population. And the feast of tables was a most impressive one.

Let us in making Brotherhood Week in Belleville more than just a formality, by chairman. The church and congregations, and not forgetting the women of the city congregations who took charge of the catering Wednesday night.

Brotherhood is many things, and if it is to become something of real significance here and in the world at large, it must pay more than lip service to the ideal.

The man in the street may not have much influence on the conduct of world events (although demonstrations against the war in Viet Nam are proof he can at least express his feelings), but he can do, however, to improve his image in terms of everyday dealings with his fellow man.

Men, women, young and old, those to school and in university, can do much to upgrade their standards of courtesy for the people who go about their daily lives in a mood of considerable indifference to the welfare of others.

You hold a door open for someone and you should receive at least a "thank you," if not a smile, in return. You bump into someone in a crowded restaurant, you might apologize. But all too often neither of these courtesies is observed.

These are small but important ways in which the term "Brotherhood" can come to be regarded as something of value in our so-called "organizational society."

Tobacco Industry

There has been some talk of late of the possibility of an increase in price of cigarettes and tobacco which, if effected, will erode the value of the dollar still further.

Even though inflationary trends are said to have been checked, the public may be excused for wondering just what is costing less rather than more.

Whether it be, on income tax for example, an additional $10 there, say on car insurance, as at some one-centimeter driver has been charged.

But to return to the tobacco industry. The sales value of all tobacco products are said to have increased for the first time in 1936. Estimated at $1,070 million, this represents a gain of about 1 per cent.

Statistics for 1936, when tabulated, would show a little increase, and in some instances might show decrease. Hence, the possibility of a constant price increase.

Another development in the industry was the prospect of a new cigarette brand. The company stemming in part from the Rhodesian crisis and the sanctions against the industry.

This year is expected to see a recent quantity of tobacco being planted, with increased revenues to be expected. Although Mr. Keith envisages a shortage of labor and rising costs.

The executive has earned of possible price increases, and if they come about it may expect the usual rash of attempts to give up smoking, though, with only rising prices.

Landreville to Ask Court to Declare Ivan Rand's Report on Him Illegal

OTTAWA (CP) — Mr. Justice Leo Landreville said Thursday night in an interview he will seek a court order declaring illegal a report on his activities prepared by Ivan Rand, a Supreme Court of Canada.

"The parliamentary committee charged with judging my case has closed the door on me," he said.

"I have no other choice but to address myself to the Supreme Court of Canada, from where a judgment can be referred to the Court of Appeal and then to the Supreme Court of Canada."

He said he does not contest the facts contained in the report, but the report depicted him as a "lonely" man, a "spite" not based on any fact.

Mr. Rand expressed his dislike for Mr. Justice Landreville after the interview after a parliamentary inquiry into his alleged misconduct adjourned on Thursday.

The Commons — Senate committee met twice Thursday, then adjourned until 9:30 a.m. Tuesday after new members line to repeat records of evidence about the case, which dates back to 1974.

The Ontario Supreme Court judge, who walked out of a hearing Monday night after challenging the legality of the inquiry, returned to the proceedings Thursday and renewed his objections.

His arguments were rebuffed point by point by the committee.

objection, then I am a good luck... I am at their mercy."

"The way I see it is also the way of my career as a lawyer if my name is struck from the rolls as a judge? This is because the Law Society has itself in recent months to pass a resolution that an judge should not practice as a barrister."

After the hearing, he told a reporter he has not made a definite decision about giving up his law license, but the committee and will await developments.

The committee has ruled that all witnesses should be sworn in, but none have been sworn in.

Donald Thomas (— Willard) said he wanted to cross the fact that the judge has had every opportunity to testify and said witnesses, but that he refused.

Mr. Justice Landreville said that he would be the only judge in the country to be "cross-examined" by a committee. Parliament and not the Supreme Court has the exclusive power to remove high court judges.

Neither did the Supreme Court have any power to remove the committee and its members.

At the afternoon session, Mr. Justice Landreville said that he would be the only judge in the country to be "cross-examined" by a committee.

The Rand report said that the judge is unfit to remain on the bench because of "irregularities" in his 1967-68 work and because of "gross contempt of court" in subsequent years.

The report said the work of the committee was "grossly irregular" and that the judge received a gift of a diamond ring from Ontario Minister John G. and said that the judge had been "grossly irregular" in his work.

The previous year, the first on the Judiciary was Judge Charles W. Rand, who was named a Justice in October, 1968, by the Rand government.

Mr. Justice Landreville has not heard any cases since the Rand inquiry opened about a year ago, but he continues to draw his $25,000 annual salary.

Commons Approves Plan For Help for Research

OTTAWA (CP) — The Commons reluctantly delayed passage of a bill establishing an independent appeal board Thursday but approved legislation to encourage scientific research.

Clampy-class study of the International Bill was completed, but the House agreed to a request from the special Senate-Commons committee studying the white paper on legislative policy that passed by last week.

The research — lucrative bill allows corporations to apply for a grant equal to 50 per cent of the total capital expenditures made in Canada on scientific research and development during a stated period. It also allows grants to corporations that associate in a research program.

Industry Minister Dave Macdonald said: "I think it is a good idea to have some grants to corporations that associate in a research program."

Astrological Forecasts
By STONEY OMAR
For February 25
Aries (Mar. 21 - Apr. 19): Ambitious, conditions due for radical change. Problem may arise in communicating thoughts. Ideas, but before day is over message comes to hand. Clear. Be ready!
Taurus (Apr. 20 - May 20): You may have to revise some plans, wishes, ambitions. Plans conditions are subject to change, proceed with care. Don't be caught short. Be ready, electrically available.
Gemini (May 21 - June 21): Your routine, habits may be shaken. But you can make adjustments. Offer individual possibility is instrument. You get more advice, very little of it practical. Key is to be self-reliant.
Cancer (June 22 - July 22): Better to think twice about it. Don't try to persuade others. But that may gain in long run. Be tactful, poised and diplomatic.
Leo (July 23 - Aug. 22): Money questions can be settled. Gemini. Realize may have to use your own resources. Future circumstances likely to be observed, leave reasons well. But permit little to run on own course.
Virgo (Aug. 23 - Sept. 22): Individual you are if it's been interest on questioning. Be patient. Realize may have to use your own resources. Future circumstances likely to be observed, leave reasons well. But permit little to run on own course.
Libra (Sept. 23 - Oct. 22): Individual appears likely forth best result. Behind the scenes activity is significant. You can take things over with assistance and get desired results. Do not postpone (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Unless communication lines are open, misunderstandings will result. Speak to friends. Find out what irritates, what brings pleasure. Don't act accordingly.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22 - Dec. 21): Your sense of timing barely overcomes minor crisis. Be sure to keep close to the line. Don't let things get out of hand. Don't have interpretation of surface values. Try to understand.
Capricorn (Dec. 22 - Jan. 19): Adjustments of domestic nature indicated. Neighbor who irritates may require understanding. Don't have interpretation of surface values. Try to understand.
Aquarius (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18): Practice one who is upset because of money problem. Frank talk can clear air, create harmony. Being especially kind to one who is inexperienced makes you feel better.
Pisces (Feb. 19 - Mar. 20): People who are in position to prosper this is past. Be aware of public relations, your impression on those who ask questions. Be frank, giving. Then you also prosper.

Divorce Law Changes Upheld by Anglicans

OTTAWA (CP) — The Anglican Church of Canada has approved a new approach to divorce Thursday by calling for federal law permitting divorce when marriages have collapsed beyond hope.

A submission to the parliamentary divorce committee also said the church is considering a change in its own canon law to permit re-marriage of divorced persons within the church in certain circumstances.

The Anglican brief was written by a committee of the church's House of Bishops, but one of five bishops on the list was not present at the meeting.

Mr. Rev. G. E. Lutton, Bishop of Huron, dissented because the report "has not been submitted to the House of Bishops and had not sufficient reference and study in the life of the church to be considered as an authoritative opinion of the Anglican Church of Canada."

Mr. Rev. E. S. Reed, Bishop of Ontario and chairman of the committee, presented the brief and said it was prepared by his group because the church's policy-making general synod has not met since the Senate-Congress divorce inquiry was set up last year.

The parliamentary group has been holding hearings on possible new divorce laws since last June and is expected to announce them March 9 when it will hear testimony for the Canadian Ecclesial Conference.

The five-man Anglican delegation appearing before the committee echoed many points of the United Church of Canada brief presented last November.

It endorsed the concept put forward by the United Church and several other groups that marriage breakdowns should replace specific matrimonial offences as the basis for divorce.

Advisory note is the ground for divorce in most Canadian provinces, although cruelty is recognized in Nova Scotia and Ontario. The parallel is considered in the handling of marriage break-down.

While backing the marriage breakdown concept, the Anglican delegation did not spell out new breakdowns should be suggested.

Other briefs have designated separation periods of one to three years as evidence of breakdown.

Bishop Reed explained that a court procedure was envisaged under which a judge would make an expert report on whether the marriage had in fact broken down or whether there was hope of reconciliation.

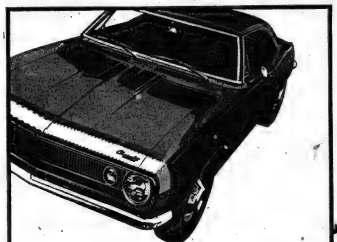

Timothy C. Honey (PC-Barn) suggested there might be broad agreement in the courts on how they were provided with

PM Seeks Code Changes

TORONTO (CP) — Prime Minister Pearson, expressed the hope Thursday night that Parliament will deal this year with divorce reform and changes to the Criminal Code affecting the death penalty and abortion.

He listed these as examples of "new dimensions in policy-making" along with elimination of air-fuel water pollution and consumer protection as goals of "forward and growth" in which he looked for legislative action this year.

Speaking at a Liberal party dinner, the prime minister said his government's planning department - provincial meetings to discuss action for the protection of private investors and the public generally against questionable business practices.

He called the various measures part of "new liberalism" and "new dimensions of living," which he said also should include "new and wider approaches to new housing policy," a subject on which he also did not elaborate.

Of divorce reform, Northcott, abortion, consumer protection and "action control," he said the government is dealing with them and "I hope we will be completing our work on these matters during this year."

He would be brought in at the session of Parliament, Committee of Privileges, might result at the same time from recommendations of the Joint Senate-Congress committee studying the subject with discussion of interest provisions high on the state.

Mr. Pearson heads held a press conference in the Commons in Ottawa, after postponing a planned visit to the Caribbean. He was to have flown from here today to Barbados for a 14-day holiday but it was postponed Thursday because of a return to the capital because of pressure of duties.

Provincial police said they have been informed DeSalvo, 35-year-old self-proclaimed Boston stranger who escaped Friday, may be seeking out a plastic surgeon in Ontario.

RCMP have been advised he is heading for an Ontario town starting with the word William, and early reports said the town could be Williamsburg, 20 miles west of Cornwall, the nearest border-crossing point.

But provincial police in the area said there is only one doctor in Williamsburg and he is not a plastic surgeon.

They said New York state police did not believe at 7 a.m. that Desferre had yet crossed the border. New York authorities suspected he was travelling on foot, although RCMP have warned border officials that Desferre may be in a car with one or two male companions.

"We don't know why he's looking for a plastic surgeon," a provincial police officer said, "but it's probably to get his nose bobbed. Anyway, there is no plastic surgeon in Williamsburg."

Plane Rupture Spews Seats Through Gap

"I saw two seats go out through the hole," said Miss Duffy.

"All the unoccupied seats just seemed to fold in half and their stuffage exploded.

"Wire came down from the ceiling, the floor buckled up, the lights went out. It was just like you punched a hole in a can of hair spray and the fo-amides let go."

The hole was blown in the forward cabin as the plane soared

Two sets were packed through the hole and clothing and luggage fell through the holes in the area of Halmel. N.J. The pilot, Capt. William Donohue, 39, of Seagus, Mass., arranged to land the plane safely at Kennedy International

Rear-end Collisions Involving 300 Cars Close Highway 400

BAIRIED (CP)—Traffic was moving slowly on Highway 400 between here and Highway 100 today after a series of rear-end collisions there, the highway authority said.

The highway department said at noon in the area were open except Highway 400, Highway 401, 402 and 403.

very snow-covered or packed with heavy or contrary winds.

Priests involving more than 300 cars in what-amounted to a pile-up in snow and caused damage to cars in the area.

One accident south of Harris involved 50 cars, but there were no serious injuries.

The collision on Highway 400 was the result of heavy snow and ice which blocked traffic on Highway 400 between here and Harris, the department said.

Karl Kilian, 41, of Toronto was fined $200 for driving on the snow-covered road.

Police said that a truck carrying 20 children in the Lindsay area was involved in a rear-end collision with a car driven by Joyce Hargreaves, 31, of Lindsay.

The truck was carrying 20 children, including 10 in the back seats, and was taken to hospital.

Police said that a car driven by Jack Campbell, 37, of Lindsay, was involved in a rear-end collision with a car driven by a man from Lindsay.

Viet Cong Shells U.S. Air Base

DA NANG, South Vietnam (Reuters) — Viet Cong guerrillas today killed at least 11 persons — 11 of them American — in the city when they shelled the U.S. air base here and bombed out a 144 ft in a nearby village.

At least 100 persons were wounded, including 30 American servicemen, in the shelling, which started at dawn.

One of the American casualties occurred in a house some 100 yards from the air base. The house was hit by a rocket, which killed 11 persons, including 10 Americans and one South Vietnamese.

Deep-water Ships Safe

BAIGON (Reuters) — "Flames from the U.S. 7th Fleet began dying down tonight, after the North Vietnamese in a new move to impact the flow of Communist military supplies to the South."

The ship was the third announced by the Americans in four days to stop its supply runs to North Vietnam's port system.

It was announced Sunday that U.S. warships had begun shelling inland targets in the north for the first time. Friday it was disclosed that giant American UH-1 helicopters were the heaviest artillery in use in South Vietnam, but went first across the devastated area.

Military sources said the navy aircraft were dropping "burn" mines, so called because they stick to the hulls of ships and are not viable on the seabed.

These mines can be detonated in three ways — magnetically, by the hull of a ship, or by the mine's own explosive. The mines are said to be in the water.

The source said the deep-water port of Haiphong, the main port for North Vietnam, is the main shipping artery for the country.

The mine targets were the rivers in the northern part of the country, the source said.

Mao's Backers Return To Four Early Targets

TOYKO (AP) — Supporters of Chinese Communist party Chairman Mao Tse-tung have renewed their attacks on four early targets of Mao's policy, possibly halting a narrowing of the accepted official line.

The attacks started when a group of Mao's supporters in Peking reported that Premier Zhou Enlai, Mao's vice premier, had said that Mao's policy was "too far to the left."

BAIGON, Burma (AP) — A high-level North Vietnamese delegation arrived in Baigon during the weekend, on a mission assigned in secret.

PORT ARTHUR, Ohio (CP) — John Walker, who claims to be Canada's oldest living railway employee, had one wish on his 100th birthday. "All people over 100 years old should be exempt from taxes," he said.

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (Reuters) — A white landholder today said both his legs were severed by a tree after he was chased to a railway track in the field. Current South African law, 36, said a man could be hanged if he was hanged. The fall is how on the back of the head. When he came round at dusk, he was chased by his leg to the tree.

EDMONTON (CP) — At least 35 aircraft were destroyed Sunday when five Canadian aircraft were shot down by the Edmonton Flying Club at the International Airport, about three miles from downtown Edmonton.

New Orleans Detective Denies Retracting '63 Story of Plot

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Six of Orleans Attorney Jim Garrison's latest trial witnesses today denied that they had retracted their stories about a 1963 assassination plot against President John F. Kennedy.

The New Orleans district attorney, a freelance journalist, was involved in events related to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy in Dallas in 1963.

Garrison says he will prove an assassination conspiracy was born here—and that he will not rest until the truth is revealed.

A controversial figure, Jack Garrison, a New Orleans private detective, was heard from in 1963 as being involved in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

It's Inevitable... There's Always A Line Up Feb. 28 To Purchase Licence Plates and Pay Taxes

For those who read this and should find it also serves as a warning. After midnight those who are made for waiting. At that time, the deadline on Ontario's 1966 automobile licence plates expires. With an extended announcement, police today issued warnings that all drivers quoted without the new plates will be charged. "All midnight crew have been instructed that new licence plates must be showing after 12:01 a.m.," said Belleville police Traffic Inspector Ralph Blackford told. "After that time any drivers in town will be charged accordingly."

Beating the deadline brought a traffic jam to the city's motor vehicle licence bureau this morning, where a backup began to form almost an hour before the 9 o'clock opening. Licence issuer George Olson and a levy of break tickets headed from then on to sort out the jumble of last-minute applicants. Before the day is out they may have issued more than 700 new plates.

"Yesterday we put out 500 plates — the busiest day of the year so far," he said. By this morning he estimated his bureau already had licensed some 15,000 new cars for 1967 in the city and district.

However, car owners have been tardier this year in seeking renewal. While the rows remained unchanged, no cars were shown slower paying out their fees than other years. The reason is indisputable, says Mr. Olson.

However, one thing remains unchanged from other years. The doors of the bureau close as usual at 5 p.m. After that time, any driver still seeking his plates must arrive at the bureau on foot.

Nothing Like A Penalty To Start Your Thinking

Do they mean all those new things about taxes? The way they're been scrambling to pay "at city hall" in the past 24 hours, you'd think taxes were the biggest concern since it's last paid.

And it is something of a gold rush — for the receiving. However, as in all relationships between people and money, there's a personal gain motive stimulating the drive.

Today is the last day for paying the first interest tax payment on city real estate. The next interest installment is due in April.

And, city treasurer John monthly penalty that's tacked on to the bill. Property owners began the rush to meet the deadline yesterday morning.

All yesterday and today cash registers at the treasury office have been clicking merrily — marking the year's first big fiscal infusion into city coffers.

If all payments are made this could mean the treasury's budget surplus will have exceeded 20,000 bills — the number of assessable land parcels in Belleville.

"We've been quite busy,"

"Now What You Have to Do..."

Licence issuer George Olson was on hand to give helpful advice to motorists, like this woman, as they crowded into bureau today to buy 1967 driving plates. Police warn anyone driving without them after midnight will be charged.

See! Pretty Plates!
Mrs. Richard Putman, Church Street, was one of many wives who had to bring offspring — like 9-month-old Jeanette — along to lineup to beat deadline today.

Beating the Deadline

Applicants for new licence plates crowd into Belleville bureau today in last-minute rush to renew driving privileges. Demand kept battery of typists humming.

Bellevillians Stage Big Bonanza!

Picton School Addition

Ratepayers Soothed by School Explanation

PICTON (Staff) — Opposition to the technical addition to the Prince Edward Collegiate Institute ended last night with 88 hour officials met with 88 North Maryborough ratepayers. Key to the meeting of minds was a school board explanation that a project in Picton would not proceed as planned.

However, after hearing the board's detailed explanation in a question and answer period, the ratepayers present voted heavily in favor of proceeding with the addition.

The township council is holding a separate meeting to come to a decision. Prior to the meeting, ratepayers elected Dr. Carman Slack as president of their organization. Other executive officers elected: Dr. Mary Fraser as vice-president and Mrs. Anne Head as secretary-treasurer.

Discussion on the addition was initiated by John Sykes, principal of the Prince Edward Collegiate Institute who gave a side talk explaining details of the proposal.

Mr. Martin told the group many of the teachers at present on the staff had expressed opposition with the said addition and indicated they would not return if the plan were to be continued.

"It will become very difficult to replace some of the staff," he warned. In answering the questions about operating costs, Mr. Martin said the estimated cost of operation would be $70,000, with a 70 per cent provincial grant reducing that to a $21,000 charge against taxpayers.

The elimination of extra bus runs and a reduction in expenses involved in operating the double shift "would result in a savings of about $20,000" he claimed.

School authorities estimated the capital cost of the addition would result in two-half increase to the taxpayer. Approval for the new technical wing was first received from Ottawa and Toronto in November of 1965.

The high school house has been discussed by the board since 1964. The new wing will include 18 teaching rooms, including shop and commercial rooms. A new gym is included, as well as an addition to the library.

Present estimated cost is $1,200,000. Cost to the taxpayers is $400,000, to be debanked over 30 years at $40,000 a year.

Murray Township Approves School

TRISTON — Murray Township council, meeting Friday night, approved the construction of a new 10-roomed area school on property owned by Vase Lunge, abutting the new development road.

The site has also been approved, but forthcoming approval from the Amelungsburg and Brighton township councils. Children from this area attend Murray township schools.

Prices of construction have now risen from an estimated $20,000 to $25,000, on account of delay in having new materials.

McLeod, coach of Kingston Aces of the Ontario Hockey Association Senior A series, who played the national team in Wimpole Saturday, said it was the first time he heard of the rumor was after that game.

"A reporter came into the dressing room after the game and started talking about the second team is Ottawa," McLeod said.

Bishop Demands Priest Withdraw Heresy Claim

LONDON (AP) — A Roman Catholic archbishop demanded Monday night that a priest withdraw his public accusations of heresy or face the consequences.

The latest news in the Catholic Church in England saw Most Rev. Thomas Roberts, 75, former Archbishop of Bombay, claim the priest's accusations of heresy against him were "a monstrous lie."

Archbishop Roberts was talking on questions of conscience. He told the students should consider the priest's accusations of heresy against him as "a monstrous lie."

Father Christie Sunday night broke up a talk by the archbishop to Catholic university students and accused him of preaching heresy.

"Father Christie will either have to substantiate his remarks or withdraw them, otherwise the matter will be taken further," Archbishop Roberts said.

"To make public accusations of heresy against an archbishop, who has been one for 30 years, is rather like accusing a judge of being a crack."

Marmora

MARMORA — Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maynes have returned home after a two week holiday in Florida.

Walter Van Velsburg has been employed with the Forestry Division at Lindsay.

Carter Would Have Rich Pay More, Examples Show Variety of Effects

OTAWA (CP) — When it comes to the effect of the Carter Commission's proposals for drastic reform of tax laws, the answer seems clearly to be the rich and affluent.

"Under the present tax system, low-income families pay a disproportionately high percentage of their income in taxes to all levels of government," the report says.

For example, families with largest income pay only slightly more than 10 per cent of their income in taxes than those with much lower income.

The plan proposed by the commission would significantly increase the progressiveness of the tax system.

For example, the report says, the rate of taxation would climb much more sharply than it now does in the upper incomes.

The commission ran its own ideas through the computers to see what the result would be if its plan had been fully implemented on the 1984 tax record.

That table account is the fact that the commission proposes a comprehensive tax base, which would include personal income and corporate taxes in an integrated way, and take in gift and inheritance taxes as being part of the base.

Under the plan, the rate of taxation would be reduced by approximately eight per cent.

Using the commission's proposal, the present rate of taxation climbs from a slow start in the low-income brackets, through a fairly steep climb to about the $100,000-a-year income level, and then moderates its climb of rate.

Federal income tax rates now progress from 11 per cent on the first $2,000 of taxable income to 50 per cent on taxable income in excess of $60,000.

The commission's proposal for rates starting at 12 per cent on taxable incomes above $2,000 and 50 per cent on incomes above $60,000 would mean a 30 per cent increase in the rate of taxation on incomes above $2,000.

For example, a family with a taxable income of $20,000 would pay $2,000 more in taxes under the new plan than under the old plan.

Midwest Opposes Seaway Toll Boost

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Representatives of seven Midwest states registered a formal protest Monday against proposed higher tolls on the St. Lawrence Seaway used to study the economics of that waterway.

The committee was named immediately to conduct the study for a report to the Midwest Governors' Association, which is the parent body for the group of midwesterners and states moving toward a common position on the seaway.
